Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Chapter 1
The Caroline County Personnel System

Article 1. Creation

Section 1-101. Creation of These Rules and Regulations.

In furtherance of the provisions of Chapter 49 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Caroline County, Maryland, these Personnel Rules and Regulations, which constitute the Caroline County Personnel System, are hereby established.

Article 2. The Nature of the Personnel System

Section 1-201. No Property Interest or Contractual Rights Created by the System.

These Personnel Rules and Regulations do not create any property interest in County employment or continued County employment. They do not create any contractual rights and are not intended to be contractual in nature. They establish procedures and guidelines pursuant to which the County and its Employees can be expected to interact, subject to amendment or modification at the sole option and discretion of the County Commissioners. Nothing in these Personnel Rules and Regulations shall prohibit the County Commissioners and/or the Office of Human Resources from instituting processes, forms, procedures, and/or administrative directives to implement or carry out these Personnel Rules and Regulations. Nothing in these Personnel Rules and Regulations shall be interpreted to limit in any way the power and authority of the County Commissioners by motion or resolution, to adjust rates of pay, work schedules, days and hours of employment, methods of scheduling work hours, methods of determining overtime eligibility, or otherwise manage, change, or alter any term or condition of employment, all of which power and authority rests in and may be exercised by the County Commissioners, in their discretion, to meet the County's obligation to operate under law within a balanced budget.

Section 1-202. No Right to Continued Employment.

- A. These Rules and Regulations do not create a continued right to employment.
- B. Employees may be dismissed without cause and at the discretion of the County Commissioners and the County Administrator whenever there are insufficient funds to cover all of the County positions currently filled. When positions are being eliminated for fiscal reasons, no special consideration need be given to Employees on the basis of tenure or years of service with the County.¹

¹ Pursuant to the Age Discrimination and Employment Act, a senior Employee with a good performance record may not be eliminated in favor of a junior Employee merely because the senior Employee is paid more. See Section 12-104, infra.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- C. The County Administrator may recommend a restructuring or reorganization of departments, agencies, and working units, and may recommend the reallocation or elimination of position functions, and the County Commissioners may restructure or reorganize departments, agencies and working units, reallocate or eliminate position functions, and may eliminate positions that are no longer deemed necessary to delivering any service or work product of the County at any time and at their sole discretion and pleasure. (See Section 12-104).

G. Investigation of Complaint.

1. All complaints of sexual harassment filed within 90 days of the events giving rise to the complaint shall be investigated. Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

1. Any Employee found to have engaged in sexual harassment or retaliation against an Employee filing a report of sexual harassment shall be disciplined. The Personnel Administrator may accept, reject or modify the recommendations of the ad hoc committee with respect to any incident an ad hoc committee was convened to investigate. The Personnel Administrator shall record in writing at the time of his or her decision the reasons for any actions that the Personnel Administrator may take regarding the matter. If the Personnel Administrator decides that dismissal is the appropriate sanction, the Personnel Administrator shall seek approval for the action from the County Administrator. The Personnel Administrator shall, within five working days of his or her decision, notify in writing the Employee who filed the complaint of sexual harassment as to the Personnel Administrator's disposition of the matter, including disciplinary actions, if any, that may have been taken.
2. If an investigation results in a finding that the person who filed the complaint of sexual harassment falsely and wantonly and recklessly accused another of sexual harassment, the person shall be subject to appropriate sanctions as determined by the Personnel Administrator. If the Personnel Administrator decides that termination is the appropriate sanction, the Personnel Administrator shall seek approval for the action from the County Administrator.

I. Appeals Process. If a person disciplined pursuant to this Section 4-102 is dissatisfied with the final actions taken under this section, the person may file a grievance with the County Administrator in the manner provided in Chapter 6 of these Rules and Regulations.

J. If the person filing the grievance/appeal pursuant to Section 4-102.I is dissatisfied with the resolution of the matter by the County Administrator, and that resolution involves a determination of dismissal or suspension without pay for more than five (5) days, that person may appeal the decision of the County Administrator to the Grievance Appeal Panel pursuant to Chapter 6 hereof.

Section 4-103. Substance Abuse

A. Policy.

1. The County is committed to providing a safe, efficient, and productive work environment through a substance free workplace. The purpose of this policy is to prevent the risks and negative effects that are brought about by substance abuse while respecting the dignity and privacy of Employees. Illegal or irresponsible drug or alcohol use by Employees is not consistent with the County's goal to operate in a safe and efficient manner.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

2. Violation of any portion of this policy will subject Employee to appropriate disciplinary measures, up to and including termination. Although this policy has been written to address as many of the pertinent issues in this sensitive area as possible, Employer reserves the right to modify or amend it. Any Employee who has questions or concerns about this policy should contact the Personnel Administrator.
- B. Pre-Employment Testing. Employer shall test each successful applicant for drugs and alcohol prior to awarding applicant a position. If an applicant tests positive for drugs or alcohol, Employer shall send applicant a notice of the applicant's right to an independent test. Employer shall not hire anyone who has a positive result from a pre-employment drug and alcohol test. Employer also shall not consider for hire anyone who refuses to take a pre-employment drug and alcohol test.
- C. Prohibitions.
1. Entry upon or into County premises or property, or presence at work, under the influence of illegal or abused drugs or alcohol, or any combination thereof, is strictly prohibited. No Employee shall possess, conceal, promote, sell or bring alcohol, illegal substances, which term includes any related paraphernalia, onto County property. County property includes, but is not limited to, County premises, including leased premises, and/or County property (including County vehicles) and/or any place where Employee is conducting business for or on behalf of the County, or where the County conducts business. If the County has reasonable grounds to believe that an Employee possesses, is concealing, or has brought substances onto County property, Employer reserves the right to conduct a reasonable search for those substances, including but not limited to, a search of the Employee's office, desk, locker, or County vehicle.
 2. An exception is made for Employees who take prescription medicines according to instructions given by a licensed physician or medical provider. However, an Employee who is taking prescription medications that may impair his or her ability to perform his or her job has an affirmative duty to report the usage of such medications to his or her supervisor. This reporting is required to assess the Employee's ability to conduct County business, drive a vehicle, or operate machinery. If Employee does not report the usage of prescription drugs and causes an accident upon, with, or while operating County property, Employee will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
- D. Reporting. An Employee who receives either an alcohol driving conviction (defined below) or a drug conviction (defined below) has an affirmative duty to report that conviction within five (5) working days to the Personnel Administrator. Generally, the first alcohol driving or drug conviction will subject Employee, at a minimum, to mandatory participation in a sanctioned alcohol and/or substance abuse treatment program. A second alcohol driving or drug conviction may result in termination of employment. Nothing in these Personnel Rules and Regulations shall be interpreted to prohibit the termination of an Employee on a first offense for a drug or alcohol related incident if the Personnel Administrator or the County Administrator deems the offense to be of a magnitude or severity that may reasonable be believed to place the County, its Employees, and/or the public at large at risk. If Employer learns of an alcohol driving or drug conviction that was not reported by Employee, such failure constitutes grounds for termination, and Employee shall be subject to mandatory participation in a sanctioned alcohol and/or substance abuse treatment program if not terminated. Safety Sensitive Employees who have prior alcohol driving or drug convictions, or plea or resolution of criminal charges other than an acquittal, may be tested as a continuing condition of employment for up to a total of three years after their last conviction, or plea or resolution of criminal charges other than an acquittal.

E. Alcohol and Drug Testing.

1. All Safety Sensitive Employees shall be subject to drug or alcohol testing: (1) on a yearly basis, (2) prior to being transferred or promoted to a Safety Sensitive position, or (3) prior to returning to duty after failing a previous test. Moreover, any Employee (whether in a safety sensitive position or not) whose conduct, appearance or behavior provides reasonable suspicion that the Employee is using drugs or alcohol at work or any Employee whose job performance inexplicably deteriorates, or whose demeanor becomes erratic, may be required to submit to testing for drugs and alcohol. Reasonable suspicion is a belief that Employee has violated the alcohol or drug prohibitions of this policy based on specific, contemporaneous, describable observations concerning such factors as appearance, behavior, speech or body odors of Employee.
2. The first confirmed positive test result of any Employee will, at a minimum, require Employee to undergo and successfully complete a sanctioned alcohol and/or substance abuse treatment program. A second confirmed positive test result might subject Employee to termination. After any positive result, Employee shall be furnished with a notice that will indicate the test results, a copy of this policy, Employer's intent to take disciplinary action, and a statement that permits Employee to request independent testing of the same sample. (See Appendix; Notice Following A Positive Drugs and Alcohol Test.) Refusing to submit to testing, or tampering with a specimen for testing, shall subject Employee to termination. All testing will be conducted by a laboratory that holds a license under Section 17-205 of the Health General Article of the Code of Maryland and in a manner that respects and recognizes the dignity and privacy of the Employee. Therefore, Employer will endeavor, to the greatest extent possible, to protect the confidentiality of information regarding individual test results.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- F. Treatment and Continued Employment. Employer realizes that alcoholism and drug addiction can be illnesses for which there is effective treatment and rehabilitation. Prior to reaching a point where an Employee's judgment, performance or behavior leads to disciplinary action, it is Employee's responsibility to seek assistance from a sanctioned alcohol and/or substance abuse treatment program. Please note that participation in a sanctioned alcohol and/or substance abuse treatment program may be covered, in part, under Employer's health benefits. Employees will not be terminated for voluntarily seeking assistance for a substance abuse problem. An Employee who continues to work and who is participating in a sanctioned alcohol and/or substance abuse treatment program will be expected to meet existing job performance standards and established work rules. Continued performance, attendance or behavior problems may result in termination. Employer will attempt to make reasonable accommodations for an Employee who voluntarily initiates participation in and adheres to a sanctioned alcohol and/or substance abuse treatment program.
- G. Definitions as used in this policy.
1. Alcohol – means ethyl alcohol or ethanol.
 2. Alcohol Driving Conviction – means a violation of the laws of Maryland or any other jurisdiction involving driving or attempting to drive while intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol, for which the Employee pleads guilty, pleads nolo contendere (“no contest”), is found guilty, is given probation before judgment or verdict, or otherwise receives a disposition other than not guilty or a complete dismissal of charges.
 3. Drug – means any substance taken into the body, other than alcohol, which may impair one's mental faculties and/or physical performance. This definition includes controlled dangerous substances as defined in Maryland's criminal statutes, prescription drugs, glue, paint thinner or any other item that when abused or improperly administered, may impair one's mental faculties and/or physical performance.
 4. Section 4-104. Inclement Weather.

- A. Introduction: In the interest of the welfare and safety of its employees, Caroline County government may curtail some or all routine operations because of bad weather.
- B. Notification: When the County anticipates or is experiencing severe weather, County employees may call 410-479-4107 to determine the County’s status. Employees also may visit the County’s website at www.carolinemd.org or monitor its status via the County’s Facebook page or Twitter feed. The County also will attempt to disseminate information through local radio and television broadcasts. All Department Heads will report office openings and staffing to the Department of Emergency Services on or before 8:00 a.m. on days in which the County is affected by inclement weather.
- C. Weather-related emergencies: There are four levels of weather-related emergencies.
 1. Class I – During a Class I weather event, Department Heads may authorize liberal leave for support employees as defined by this Policy. A Class I weather emergency is generally severe enough to warrant the closure of local schools but not of local, state or federal offices in the area.
 2. Class II – In response to a Class II weather event, the County Administrator may authorize liberal leave for all support employees. Department heads also may call-in or hold over operations employees depending on the needs of the County. Department Heads may call in support employees to serve as temporary operations employees. A Class II weather event is generally severe enough to warrant late arrival to or early departure from local, state or federal offices in the area.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

3. Class III – During a Class III weather event the County Administrator may authorize liberal leave and the partial or full closure of County offices. A Class III weather emergency is generally severe enough to close most local offices and businesses. The County Commissioners and/or the Governor may declare a formal state of emergency during a Class III weather event; however, this is not required. The County’s Emergency Operations Center (EOC) may be partly or fully activated. Employees will not be charged leave for absences during the administrative closure of County offices.
 4. Class IV – A Class IV weather event is the most severe condition, necessitates the closure of County offices by the County Administrator, and normally requires the declaration of a state emergency by the County Commissioners and/or Governor. During a Class IV weather emergency, the County Administrator and/or Director of Emergency Services may call-in and/or holdover any County employee to assist in emergency operations. The Emergency Operations Center (EOC) will be partly or fully activated. Employees will not be charged leave for absences during the administrative closure of County offices.
- D. Employee classification for weather-related emergencies. For the purpose of weather-related emergencies, the County’s employees are divided into three groups: operations, support and temporary operations.
1. Operations employees are required to report to work during any of the above weather-related emergencies and are not eligible for liberal leave.
 2. Support employees are eligible for liberal leave and are not required to report to work during weather-related emergencies in accordance with 4-104.C.
 3. Temporary operations employees are normally support employees who are called in to work during weather-related emergencies based on the needs of County departments. For example, the staff required to run payroll are normally support personnel; however, they may be called in during a weather emergency to ensure that all employees are paid in a timely manner.
- E. Designation of employees: If the employee's job is in one of the vital services or if the employee's agency especially needs the employee during bad weather conditions, the employee may be designated as “operations” and asked to stay on the job or report to work while other fellow workers are excused. The employee will be informed if he or she is designated as “operations.” The designation of an employee as operations may be made by the Department Head for employees of said Department. The Director of Emergency Services and the County Administrator have the authority to designate any County employee as operations or temporary operations.

1. Operations employees are not eligible for liberal leave and are required to report for work unless they are specifically excused by their supervisors. A roster of all operations employees shall be maintained by every department and a copy shall be provided to the Director of DES. The designation of an employee as “operations” may not be grieved or appealed.
2. Operations employees failing to report will be required to use their own leave to cover an absence, subject to approval by their supervisor and may be subject to disciplinary action. An operations employee calling in sick during a weather emergency may be required to provide confirmation from a physician.

F. Liberal Leave Policy. Support employees as defined above are allowed to be absent for a portion of a workday or the entire workday and are charged paid leave (i.e., annual, compensatory or personal) or leave without pay, as appropriate, for the period of the absence. Employees must notify their supervisors if they intend to take liberal leave.

1. Support employees who do not report to work while the liberal leave policy is in effect will not be penalized for unapproved absence. Support employees arriving late while the liberal leave policy is in effect will not be penalized for tardiness, but will be charged paid leave or leave without pay, as appropriate, for the period between the regular starting time and their arrival.
2. If liberal leave is announced during the workday, support employees will be permitted to leave the work site, at their discretion after notifying their supervisors. Employees will be charged paid leave or leave without pay, as appropriate, for the period between their departure and the end of their regular workday.
3. Employees may not use sick leave for a liberal leave absence unless the absence meets the criteria for sick leave in the County’s Personnel Rules and Regulations.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- G. Administrative closure of County offices: During the time an administrative closure is in effect, support employees are not obligated to report to work. On days when the County may have a delayed opening, all support employees must adhere to the established opening time. Employees will not be charged leave for absences during the administrative closure of County offices.
- H. State-County closures: Several state government agencies operate within County facilities. As a general policy, the County will not close its offices unless the State of Maryland closes its local offices.

Employer may suspend or revoke permission for an Employee to drive a County vehicle or to drive on behalf of the County as the result of such citation or charges. If driving is an essential function of Employee's job, the County may suspend without pay or terminate such Employee.
12. Employee shall not violate any federal State or local laws, ordinances or regulations and shall report, within two business days, any arrest for a felony, any indictment for commission of a crime or any conviction for a crime.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- B. Repeated (or grievous) violations of the following rules of conduct may result in termination:
1. An Employee must perform and fulfill the required duties and obligations of Employee's position in a timely and efficient manner on a continuous basis. An Employee must consistently and regularly perform at a satisfactory level that meets expectations of the position held by Employee.
 2. Employee must be at his/her designated work area on time and ready to work and shall continue to work in that location unless permission to leave is granted by the supervisor.

(See Section 4-106C).
 6. Employee shall immediately report to his/her supervisor all accidents/incidents/injuries occurring within the course of employment. If the immediate supervisor is unavailable the accident/incident/injury must be reported to the Risk Management Office within 24-hours and, preferably, on the same day of the accident/incident/injury. An accident, incident or injury not reported in compliance with this provision may be handled as a questionable accident, incident or injury, and an Employee may be disciplined for failure to report and notify as required herein. (See Section 4-105B.5).
- D. The use of Technology Equipment shall act as consent by the Employee to Employer to monitor, review and retain any and all data and information on or relative to the Technology Equipment. Section 4-107. Employee Use of Social Networking Software & Systems.

- A. Social networking software and systems are defined as any software that allows users to interact and share data. This definition includes, but is not limited to, systems such as Facebook, Twitter, My space, You Tube, chat rooms, and blogging sites.
- B. The County recognizes the general, inherent value in the exchange of ideas and information through the various online community and communication opportunities available to County employees.
- C. The County expects its employees to utilize online social networking communities in a manner that is consistent with the policies and procedures outlined.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- A. Personal social networking sites should only be used during an employee's breaks, lunch periods, or other off-duty periods. Employees are not permitted to utilize County equipment during off-duty hours for purely personal purposes.
- B. This policy cannot prescribe acceptable and unacceptable speech. Because of the innately public nature of social software, Employees should have no expectation that what is said or written on a social software platform will be afforded the same levels of privacy typically associated with a conversation.
- C. County equipment or systems may not be used at any time to transmit or receive statements that may be construed as threatening, harassing or defamatory, or that may be obscene, or that may violate any law or any policy of the County. Sending or receiving sexual or racial content or content that is inconsistent with County policies involving equal employment opportunity and sexual harassment are likewise prohibited.
- D. The use of County equipment for social networking purposes is subject to review and consideration under all other applicable County policies and existing laws, and based on content and severity may be addressed through established disciplinary actions.
- E. Employees should recognize that County customers, other employees, and the general public ("customers") who read content posted by a County employee could easily construe those messages as being representative as those of the County, even if that is not the intent. Employees should also recognize that while the County does not discourage the use of social media for personal reasons, it can blur the line between one's personal and professional life. Employees are prohibited from making any statement on any social networking site, or otherwise, that states, implies, or leads the reader or recipient to think that the statement represents the official policy or position of the County when it is in fact, not. Employees are prohibited from making any statement on any social networking site, or otherwise, that may reasonably be expected or predicted to interfere with, or cause interference with, the functioning of the County and/or its use by its customers.
- F. Employees may wish to consider creating a separate social media presence. We recommend that one's personal profile should use the highest privacy settings possible. Extreme caution should be used when interacting with a County customer since that customer will have access to all of your personal information.

- G. For the benefit of the employee, we recommend that personal employee social software accounts should have clear disclaimers that the views expressed are the employee's alone and do not represent the views of the County in cases where the employee's comments could potentially be construed to represent the County.
- H. Under no circumstances should confidential County strategies, personnel disciplinary situations, etc., be posted to or discussed on an online community.
- I. Information published on employee's social software accounts must comply with the County's confidentiality policy.
- J. County logos and trademarks may not be used without written consent.
- K. Employees are not required nor expected to participate in County branded social software during non-working hours.
- L. Employees are not, and should not feel, obligated to accept social connections from fellow employees or County customers. Employees are encouraged to create either a formal or informal personal social software policy to use as a guideline when presented with requests.
- M. Supervisors will address directly with the individual employee those situations where it appears the employee is engaged in excessive non-work-related online social networking activities.

Section 4-108. Confidentiality.

Employment with the County may expose the Employee to matters and information that are highly sensitive, confidential, and/or not generally the subject of, or which may by law be barred from, public disclosure. Employees must keep all such matters and information confidential as directed by the County Commissioners and/or as may be required by law. Privilege as to confidentiality and non-disclosure is a privilege under the control of the County and not the Employee. An Employee shall not use any such information to Employee's personal advantage or the advantage of others in a manner different from that available to the general public. A violation of this provision shall also constitute a violation of the County's Ethics Law.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Section 4-109. Code of Ethics.

Employees shall comply with any code of ethics adopted by the County Commissioners. A copy of the code of ethics is distributed to all new Employees, is available on the County website under the Code of Public Local Laws icon, and is available in hard copy from the Office of Human Resources. A violation of the County's Code of Ethics shall also constitute a violation of these Personnel Rules and Regulations.

Section 4-110. Smoking on County Property.

- A. Policy. Scientific evidence has established that smoke from tobacco products is harmful to the health and welfare of users and individuals exposed thereto, because it causes and contributes to cancer and can aggravate cardiac, respiratory and allergic conditions. The County Commissioners, pursuant to Resolution #2004-011, which expands upon Resolution #92-022, have exercised their responsibility to promote a healthy and safe environment for all Employees and individuals who conduct business at and visit County buildings and facilities by banning lighted tobacco products at such buildings and facilities.

- C. Enforcement. The Department Heads are responsible for enforcing this policy and training and educating the Employees in their departments of this policy, the places where smoking is banned, and the consequences for violating this policy. All County supervisory Employees ultimately are responsible for enforcing this policy.

Section 4-111. Criminal Background Investigation of Employees.

The Personnel Administrator may request, initiate, or authorize a criminal background investigation of an Employee if there is a reasonable basis for suspecting that an Employee may have engaged in illegal criminal conduct.

Section 4-112. Relatives Policy.

- A. No Employee may appoint, employ, promote, or advance, or advocate for the appointment, employment, promotion, or advancement, to a County employment position over which the Employee exercises jurisdiction, supervision, or control, any individual who is related to the Employee by blood, marriage, or adoption, or other close personal relationship, including a domestic partnership, romantic or sexual relationship, or cohabitation.
- B. No individual shall otherwise be appointed, employed, promoted, or advanced to a position within the jurisdiction, supervision, or control of any individual who is related to such individual by blood, marriage, or adoption, or other close personal relationship, including a domestic partnership, romantic or sexual relationship, or cohabitation, except on the written approval of the County Administrator; provided, however, that if such individual is related the County Administrator by blood, marriage, or adoption, or other close personal

- C. No Employee shall be employed in any position which employment shall create, or give the appearance of creating, a conflict of interest as to such Employee or any other Employee of the County or compromise, or give the appearance of compromising, the objectivity of the County or any Employee thereof. Resolution of issues arising under this Section 4-110.D, shall be resolved by advisory opinion from the Ethics Commission at the request of the County Administrator, in accordance with the procedures of the Ethics Commission.
- D. All individuals who currently are employed in positions under the jurisdiction, supervision, or control of any individual who is related to such employee by blood, marriage, or adoption, or other close personal relationship, including a domestic partnership, romantic or sexual relationship, or cohabitation, may continue to serve in such position without further action required; provided, however, that any subsequent appointment, advancement, or promotion of such individual shall be subject to Section 4-110 A, and B, above, and provided that such employment does not create an actual conflict of interest. All relationships governed by this Section 4-110, including grandfathered relationships, shall be disclosed to the County Administrator or to the Director of Human Resources within ninety (90) days of the effective date of this Section or, if later, with thirty (30) days from when the relationship is created or becomes known. These disclosures shall not be disclosed except for valid, specific cause, such as the need to investigate an allegation of a violation of this regulation or to determine whether a conflict or potential conflict exists.

Section 4-113. Pregnancy Policy.

- A. Pursuant to the Maryland Fair Employment Practices Law as amended by the Reasonable Accommodations for Disabilities due to Pregnancy Act, (the “Act”) Caroline County, Maryland must provide pregnant employees with reasonable accommodations for disabilities due to or contributed to by pregnancy.  - 1. Changing job duties
 - 2. Changing work hours
 - 3. Relocation
 - 4. Providing mechanical or technical aids
 - 5. Transfers to less strenuous or less hazardous positions in accordance with §4-113.E. of this section.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

C. Providing leave:

Caroline County may require a certification from the employee's health care provider regarding the medical advisability of a reasonable accommodation to the same extent certification is required for other temporary disabilities. Certification shall include: date of reasonable accommodation is medically advisable; probably duration; explanation as to the medical advisability of the reasonable accommodation.

D. Pregnancy related disabilities shall be treated as temporary disabilities under health and/or temporary disability insurance or sick leave plan available in connection with employment.

E. If an employee requests a transfer to a less strenuous to less hazardous position as a reasonable accommodation under the act, Caroline County shall transfer the employee for a period of time up to the duration of the employee's pregnancy if the employee's health care provider advises the transfer and the County can provide the reasonable accommodation by transferring the employee:

1. Without creating additional employment that the County would not otherwise have created
2. Discharging any employees
3. Transferring any employee with more seniority than the employee requesting the reasonable accommodation, or
4. Promoting any employee who is not qualified to perform the job.

F. This information should be placed in the Caroline County Maryland Employee Handbook, Personnel Rules and posted in a conspicuous location(s) advising employees of their rights under the act.

G. The County will not interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any rights set forth in the act.

Section 4-114. Harassment Policy.

A. Introduction. Caroline County government is a professional workplace where employees are expected to act in a mature, considerate, and respectful manner. Discrimination against or harassment of fellow employees or citizens is against the law, morally wrong, and is contrary to the positive organizational culture the County Commissioners desire to maintain.

The United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) website offers the following concise definition of harassment:

“Although the law doesn't prohibit simple teasing, offhand comments, or isolated

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

incidents that are not very serious, harassment is illegal when it is so severe or pervasive that it creates a hostile or offensive work environment or when it results in an adverse employment decision (such as the victim being fired or demoted).”

A comment or action can be found offensive, but not meet the standard of harassment. In turn, a comment or action can be considered harassment, even if no one present is offended, if the comment is severely offensive. While a place of work, Caroline County government also is an environment where there are thousands of interpersonal interactions every day. As in any complex social setting, there is the possibility of misunderstandings, miscommunication and, unfortunately, inappropriate behavior.

The County Commissioners are committed to maintaining an organization where a diverse range of employees can work together in a climate of mutual respect and trust. The Commissioners also recognize that this is a goal the County cannot achieve through solely through the Personnel Rules and Regulations. A positive working environment—free of harassment and discrimination—is a responsibility that rests squarely on the shoulders of all employees. This means more than individual employees following the rules; it means no employee can turn a blind eye to harassing or discriminatory behaviors.

- B. Harassment. It is illegal and a violation of this policy to harass an employee because of his or her race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), national origin, age (40 or older), disability or genetic information. It is also illegal and a violation of this policy to harass someone because he or she has complained about or reported discrimination, filed a charge of discrimination, or participated in an employment discrimination investigation or lawsuit. Harassment can take the form of slurs, graffiti, bullying, offensive or derogatory comments, or other verbal or physical conduct. As noted, although the law does not prohibit simple teasing, offhand comments, or isolated incidents that are not very serious, harassment is illegal if it is so frequent or severe that it creates a hostile or offensive work environment or if it results in an adverse employment decision (such as the victim being fired or demoted).

The harasser can be the victim's supervisor, a supervisor in another area, a co-worker, or someone who is not an employee of the employer, such as a client or customer. Harassment outside of the workplace may also be illegal if there is a link with the workplace. For example, it is harassment if a supervisor harasses an employee while driving the employee to a meeting. Mere rudeness or personal dislike will usually not be considered to be harassment under this policy.

- C. Types of discrimination and harassment. While many employees are familiar with prohibitions against discrimination because of race, religion, and national origin, the law has expanded to cover other areas like age, genetic information and pregnancy. The following types of discrimination and harassment are prohibited:

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

1. Age discrimination involves treating someone less favorably because of his age. The Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA) forbids age discrimination against people who are age 40 or older.
2. Genetic information includes information about an individual's genetic tests and the genetic tests of an individual's family members, as well as information about the manifestation of a disease or disorder in an individual's family members (i.e. family medical history). Federal law prohibits the use of genetic information in making employment decisions.
3. National origin discrimination involves treating people unfavorably because they are from a particular country or part of the world, because of ethnicity or accent, or because they appear to be of a certain ethnic background (even if they are not).

National origin discrimination also can involve treating people unfavorably because they are married to (or associated with) a person of a certain national origin or because of their connection with an ethnic organization or group.

4. Pregnancy discrimination involves treating a woman unfavorably because of pregnancy, childbirth, or a medical condition related to pregnancy or childbirth. The Pregnancy Discrimination Act (PDA) forbids discrimination based on pregnancy when it comes to any aspect of employment.
5. Race/Color discrimination involves treating someone unfavorably because he/she is of a certain race or because of personal characteristics associated with race (such as hair texture, skin color, or certain facial features). Color discrimination involves treating someone unfavorably because of skin color complexion.
6. Religious discrimination involves treating a person unfavorably because of his or her religious beliefs. The law protects not only people who belong to traditional, organized religions, such as Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, and Judaism, but also others who have sincerely held religious, ethical or moral beliefs.

Religious discrimination can also involve treating someone differently because that person is married to (or associated with) an individual of a particular religion or because of his or her connection with a religious organization or group.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

7. Sex discrimination involves treating someone unfavorably because of that person's sex, gender identity or sexual orientation. Sex discrimination also can involve treating someone less favorably because of his or her connection with an organization or group that is generally associated with people of a certain sex. Discrimination against an individual because that person is transgender is discrimination because of sex in violation of Title VII. This is also known as gender identity discrimination.
- D. Sexual Harassment. When workplace harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical harassment of a sexual nature or based on another person's sex or sexual orientation, it is considered "sexual harassment." Sexual harassment is illegal under federal law and can include offensive remarks about a person's sex. For example, it is illegal to harass a woman by making offensive comments about women in general when such comments are pervasive and hostile. See Section 4-102 for special provisions concerning sexual harassment.
- E. Harassing or discriminating behaviors. Harassing or discriminating behaviors can be obvious or subtle. The common thread is that the behavior—whether a sexist joke or racial slur—targets an individual because of his or her status, i.e., age, sex, race, religion, etc. These actions can occur in person, over the phone, through email, or on social media. Examples of harassing or discriminating behaviors based on a person's status include:
- Offensive jokes.
 - Mimicking a person's speech or accent.
 - Making stereotypical comments about a group.
 - Encouraging (or discouraging) religious views.
 - Ethnic or racial slurs, insults, and derogatory comments.
 - Displaying pornographic materials other graphic material in common areas.
 - Singling out an individual or group for ridicule or pranks.
 - Unwelcome physical contact.
 - Differential treatment or work assignments.
 - Verbal abuse, threats, or physical assaults.
- F. Pre-Complaint. In some instances, harassing behavior escalates from incidents where an employee is subject to minor (but noticeable) disrespect. Employees have a positive obligation to communicate with one another and to resolve issues before they escalate. If an employee feels another employee is acting disrespectfully, he or she should communicate this and notify the supervisor. The foundation of most harassment and discrimination is ignorance, and the best responses to ignorance are information and communication.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- G. Complaints. Caroline County takes harassment and discrimination very seriously. If an employee believes that he or she has been harassed or discriminated against, he or she should report this immediately to their supervisor. If the complaint involves the employee's supervisor, a division chief, a director, or an appointed or elected official, the complaint should be made to the Human Resources. If the complaint involves the Director of Human Resources, the complaint should be made to the County Administrator or the County Attorney. If an employee is not comfortable making a complaint directly to their supervisor it is the intent of this policy to allow employees to report harassment and discrimination outside their chain of command. Note: While the County Commissioners are elected representatives for their constituent base, and therefore most County employees, it is not within their normal and customary duties to handle personnel or serious legal complaints of this nature. Direct reporting to a Commissioner is therefore not encouraged and is disfavored. Employees are directed to follow the reporting methods set forth in this policy. A complainant that reports harassment or discrimination to a member of the County Commissioners will be directed to file their complaint with Human Resources.

Complaints about harassment and/or discrimination may be made verbally, however, the employee may be asked to complete a written report. There may be unusual or extenuating circumstances preventing the timely report of a complaint, however, absent these extraordinary circumstances, a complaint made more than 300 days after the alleged incident will not be investigated or otherwise considered.

- H. Acting in Good Faith. An allegation of harassment or discrimination is very serious. Any employee making a complaint is required to act in good faith and have reasonable grounds to believe harassment or discrimination has occurred. An employee who makes a complaint of harassment that he/she knows is false or complains for a malicious or improper purpose may be subject to discipline up to and including termination from employment.
- I. Retaliation. An employee who makes a good faith complaint shall NOT be subject to further harassment, retaliation, or adverse employment consequences. Any employee who retaliates against an employee who has made a good faith report of a violation or suspected violation shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.
- J. Investigation. Complaints of harassment and/or discrimination shall be fully and impartially investigated. The investigation will be conducted by the Department Head, the Office of Human Resources, the County Administrator, the County Attorney, and/or an outside investigator depending on the circumstances of the claim.

The complaint and investigation will be conducted as a confidential personnel matter with communication limited to those persons directly involved in the investigation and any subsequent personnel actions.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- J. Disposition. The County Commissioners will be notified of the finding of any of harassment and discrimination complaint, including complaints of retaliation.

Section 4 -115. Whistleblower Policy.

- A. Introduction/Policy. The Caroline County Commissioners are committed to supporting their employees and providing a safe and effective workplace in compliance with all applicable state and federal laws. As such, the County encourages its employees to report instances of employee misconduct, a failure to comply with law, waste and abuse of government resources and other related activity that is harmful to the County and its citizens. Caroline County prohibits retaliation by any County agency or agency employee against another employee because the employee exercised his or her constitutional or statutory rights, and/or an employee has made a report of gross mismanagement, abuse of authority, waste of resources, substantial danger to public safety or a violation of law committed by another employee.
- B. Complaints. If a Caroline County employee has a reasonable, good faith belief that another employee of Caroline County has violated any applicable law, rule or regulation, the employee is expected to immediately report that information to his or her supervisor or department head. If the employee in question is the supervisor or department head, the employee should make the report to the Director of Human Resources. If the complaint involves the Director of Human Resources, the complaint should be made to the County Administrator or the County Attorney. If an employee is not comfortable making a complaint directly to their supervisor it is the intent of this policy to allow employees to report violations of law, rule or regulation outside their chain of command. The employee should make the report promptly upon he discovery of the suspected misconduct or irregularity. Note: While the County Commissioners are elected representatives for their constituent base, and therefore most County employees, it is not within their normal and customary duties to handle personnel or serious legal complaints of this nature. Direct reporting to a Commissioner is therefore not encouraged and is disfavored. Employees are directed to follow the reporting methods set forth in this policy. A complainant that reports violations any applicable law, rule or regulation to a member of the County Commissioners will be directed to file their complaint with Human Resources.
- C. Acting in Good Faith. An employee who makes a complaint of whistleblowing that he/she knows is false or complains for a malicious or improper purpose may be subject to discipline up to and including termination from employment.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- D. Retaliation. No employee of the Caroline County will retaliate against a another employee in the terms and conditions of employment because that employee: (a) reports to a supervisor, department head, Human Resources director, or to a federal or state agency, what the employee believes in good faith to be a violation of the law; or (b) participates in good faith in any resulting investigation or proceeding, or (c) exercises his or her rights under any state or federal law(s) rule(s) or regulation(s) to pursue a claim or take legal action to protect the employee's rights.

The County may take disciplinary action (up to and including termination) against an employee who has engaged in retaliatory conduct in violation of this policy, in accordance with existing disciplinary procedures.

In addition, the County will not, with the intent to retaliate, take any employment action harmful to any employee who has provided to law enforcement personnel or any court, truthful information relating to the commission or possible commission by Caroline County government or any of its employees of a violation of any applicable law, rule or regulation.

- E. Investigations. The County will investigate all such reports either by assigning a department head or other County official to investigate, or obtaining the services of outside counsel or investigator, at the discretion of the County Administrator and County Attorney. In conducting its investigations, the County will strive to keep the identity of the complaining individual as confidential as possible, while conducting an adequate review and investigation.
- F. Disposition. If the investigation substantiates an allegation of criminal conduct on the part of any Caroline County employee, the County Attorney will notify the appropriate enforcement authorities.

The County Commissioners will be notified of the findings of complaints, including complaints of retaliation.

Chapter 5
Discipline of Employees

Section 5-101. Policy.

Disciplinary action against a Classified Employee shall be initiated with reasonable promptness. Except for serious violations of policies, procedures, or acceptable standards of workplace conduct, disciplinary actions shall be progressive in severity. The severity of the action shall be determined after consideration of the nature and gravity of the offense, its relationship to the Employee's assigned duties and responsibilities, the Employee's work record, and other relevant factors.

Section 5-102. Causes for Disciplinary Action.

- A. The following, while not inclusive, are serious violations of policies and procedures that may be cause for immediate disciplinary action up to and including termination:
1. Violation of the Principles of Section 4-101 of these Personnel Rules and Regulations;
 2. Violation of the Sexual Harassment Policy (see Section 4-102);
 3. Violation of the Substance Abuse Policy (see Section 4-103);
 4. Violation of the General Rules Governing Employee Conduct set forth in Section 4-105A;
 5. Violation of the Technology, Cellular Phone, E-Mail, Internet and Telephone Policy (see Section 4-106); or
 6. Falsifying material information on an employment application, submissions concerning promotion or leave of absence, or County records.
 7. Violation of the County's Code of Ethics.
- B. The following, while not inclusive, are cause for disciplinary action, and, in severe or repeated cases, may result in termination:
1. Violation of the General Rules Governing Employee Conduct set forth in Sections 4-105B, including but not limited to:
 - a. Failing to perform duties in a competent or acceptable manner, including the negligent performance of duties or insubordinate behavior, and

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- b. Unauthorized absence (including leave that is not pre-approved) or chronic tardiness;
 2. Physical ailment that prevents an Employee from performing the essential functions of Employee's position, subject to the constraints of the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Maryland Workers' Compensation Act or any other applicable federal or State law;
 3. Failing to report to work without permission or proper excuse, subject to the constraints of the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Maryland Workers' Compensation Act or any other applicable federal or State law;
 4. Soliciting endorsements for employment or promotions from persons who are or may be engaged in doing business with or for Employer; or
 5. Violation of the ban on smoking at County facilities and premises (see Section 4-108).
- C. The appropriate discipline for violation of the Caroline County Code of Ethics (see Section 4-107) will depend on the nature of the violation. Engaging in patently wrongful conduct or acting in ways that clearly conflict with an Employee's duty of loyalty and fidelity to the County will be grounds for immediate discipline up to and including termination, while lesser violations, particularly if a first time offense, may warrant less severe disciplinary action.

Section 5-103. Types of Disciplinary Measures.

- A. Employer, in the exercise of its discretion and consistent with the policy set forth in Section 5-101, shall utilize the following disciplinary procedures:
 1. Counseling. Counseling is a personal meeting between supervisor and Employee to alleviate minor problems or errors of judgment. Counseling should be quickly employed to address any performance issue or problem that arises. A supervisor should make a note of each counseling of an Employee, which the supervisor should keep in a file on such supervisor's Employees, but which should not be placed in Employee's personnel file. If repeat counseling on the same matters becomes necessary, such notes can be used to prepare documented counseling or a performance evaluation that then will become part of an Employee's personnel file and may be grieved pursuant to the applicable procedures in Chapter 6 or Chapter 11.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

2. Documented Counseling. Documented counseling is a verbal discussion that is documented by placement of an Employee Contact Plan Form in Employee's personnel file. Documented counseling should be used by a supervisor to document a repeat violation of a relatively minor infraction, a minor violation of a policy or procedure, or to alert an Employee of unsatisfactory job performance that could result in a poor performance evaluation and/or further disciplinary action. A copy of any Employee Contact Plan Form completed by a supervisor should be sent to the Director of Human Resources for inclusion in Employee's personnel file.
3. Written Reprimand. A written reprimand is a written statement of dissatisfaction with an Employee's conduct that is documented by placement of a Written Reprimand Employee Contact Plan Form in the Employee's personnel file. This form of disciplinary action shall be used for matters rising above those where documented counseling is appropriate but that do not warrant more serious disciplinary action. An Employee who receives a written reprimand may not receive an annual merit increase or bonus during the fiscal year immediately following the receipt of the written reprimand.
4. Suspension. Suspension is the barring of an Employee from work for a period of time and the withholding the wages of the Employee. An Employee who receives a suspension shall not receive an annual merit increase or bonus during the fiscal year immediately following imposition of the suspension. No suspension shall be imposed without the approval of the Personnel Administrator, or, in the absence of the Personnel Administrator, the County Administrator.³ A suspension may be issued for any of the following:
 - a. A serious infraction of the rules or policies of the Employer;
 - b. Two or more offenses for which written reprimands are received in a six-month period may be cause for suspension for a period not to exceed five working days; or
 - c. Three or more offenses during a 12-month period for which written reprimands are received may be cause for suspension for a period not to exceed five working days.
5. In-Grade Reduction. An in-grade reduction is a demotion in the form of a reduction in the step (i.e., the current salary level) within the limits of the pay grade or classification to which the Employee's position is assigned in the Compensation Plan. An in-grade reduction may be the disciplinary action taken for an Employee who has not mastered all of the skills required in his/her position, although such Employee possesses the minimum qualifications of the Class Specification. An ³ A suspension may have FLSA implications; therefore the County Attorney should be consulted.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Employee who receives an in-grade reduction shall not receive an annual merit increase or bonus during the fiscal year immediately following imposition of the in-grade reduction.⁴

6. Demotion. A demotion is the movement of an Employee from a position with a higher pay grade/ classification within the Compensation Plan to a position with a lower step and/or pay grade/classification within the Compensation Plan that results in a reduction in current salary. A demotion may be the disciplinary action taken for an Employee who repeatedly fails to perform the work assigned and/or who lacks the skills requisite for such Employee's Class Specification.
 7. Suspension, Pending Resolution of Criminal Charges. An Employee who is charged with committing an indictable offense while in the execution of his or her office may be suspended without pay at the discretion of the County Commissioners until such time as the case has been resolved by the appropriate court. The salary such employee otherwise would earn shall continue to accrue and shall be held in escrow pending resolution of the criminal charges. The employee shall continue to receive health benefits and the cost for such health benefits ordinarily payable by such employee shall be deducted from the amount of salary escrowed. An Employee who is acquitted on the merits after a trial shall have any amounts of salary that have been held in escrow paid to him/her, along with the accrued interest at the prevailing savings account rate. If such Employee is found guilty or negotiates a plea bargain indicative of guilt, such Employee shall be considered as being terminated effective as of the date of suspension without pay. Such Employee shall receive any payments to which such Employee was entitled effective as of the date of suspension without pay less the cost of the health benefits provided to such Employee, and Employer shall keep all remaining sums. In cases where charges are disposed of by non-prosecution, or dismissed on a basis than the merits, the Personnel Administrator may make an independent determination of the matter and determine whether the event merits discipline or termination; such termination to be decided by the County Administrator. An Employee terminated under such circumstances may be denied the payment of escrowed salary.
 8. Dismissal. Dismissal is the removal of Employee from Employer's service.
- B. The order in which the types of disciplinary measures are listed in Subsection A does not dictate or equate to the order in which discipline must be applied to an Employee.

⁴ An in-grade reduction may have FLSA implications.

 - a) The County shall have the burden of establishing cause for dismissal.

Chapter 6
Employee Grievance Procedures

Section 6-101. Introduction.

Caroline County is committed to providing an outstanding place to work. Part of this commitment is encouraging an open and honest atmosphere in which concerns or complaints can be handled promptly, based on all the facts available. To meet this objective, the County provides ways for employees to discuss and address issues. This includes a formal dispute resolution process defined in this chapter.

Employees are free to make complaints without fear of retaliation or harassment. The County is strongly committed to resolving employment disputes in a fair, equitable and timely manner, protecting employees from retaliation, minimizing operational disruptions, and minimizing false or frivolous complaints. The County also encourages employees to resolve issues at the lowest possible level within the organization.

Section 6-102. Employees Covered.

Unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this Chapter shall apply only to Classified Employees. Recently hired Probationary Employees and At-Will Employees have no rights under the County's grievance procedure system except for the right to file a grievance of the matters set forth under section 6-105 C. The Office of Human Resources can confirm an employee's status as a Classified Employee.

Section 6-103. Grievance Defined.

A grievance is a formal complaint filed on the "Employee Grievance Form" provided by the Personnel Administrator, which may be obtained from the Director of Human Resources or the office of a Department Head. A grievance may be filed with respect to the matters listed in Section 6-105, provided an Employee has suffered or incurred an adverse employment impact or effect because of the matter grieved.

Section 6-104. Informal Conflict Resolution Preferred.

Classified employees are encouraged to express work-related concerns and issues professionally and to engage in informal conflict resolution. Classified employees are further encouraged to contact the Office of Human Resources for assistance in resolving interpersonal workplace issues and to access resources like training, counseling, mediation, and support. The County strongly prefers that employees resolve matters informally to the extent practicable.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Section 6-105. Matters That May Be Grieved.

Understanding that the informal dispute resolution process may fail, the following matters may be grieved:

- A. Any disciplinary action against a Classified Employee which results in the loss of pay or benefits including termination, reduction in grade, reduction in pay, suspension without pay and/or a written reprimand where the reprimand shall result in loss of a merit pay increase;

Note: A grievance regarding termination of employment proceeds directly to the Employee Grievance Panel.

- B. An alleged violation, misinterpretation or improper application to a Classified Employee of any laws or regulations governing or applicable to the Employer/Employee relationship, except those decisions or actions listed in Section 6-106;
- C. An allegedly improper or unreasonable act directed at a Classified Employee, Probationary Employee or At-Will Employee by a supervisor, Employee, or other person, including an act of coercion, restraint, retaliation, harassment, or intimidation. This includes but is not limited to sexual harassment, discrimination, workplace violence, or direction to work in an unsafe manner.
- D. An allegedly improper, inequitable, or unreasonable application of compensation policies or Employee benefits, which may include salary, pay differentials, awards, overtime pay, leave, insurance, retirement, and holidays.
- E. An alleged action taken in retaliation towards a Classified Employee for filing a grievance. An alleged action taken in retaliation towards a Probationary Employee or At-Will Employee for filing a grievance under Section 6-105-C.

Section 6-106. Matters That May Not Be Grieved.

The County supports the formal dispute resolution processes; however, the grievance process cannot be used to dispute or challenge certain decisions or actions including:

- A. The ratings in a personnel evaluation;
- B. Class specifications, grade assignments, and position reclassifications;
- C. Adverse employment actions taken against an employee during a probationary period;
- D. Not being selected for a position or promotion;

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- I. The award or amount of a performance bonus.
- J. Actions taken by the Personnel Administrator, County Attorney, and/or County Administrator in the administration of the Grievance procedure;

Section 6-107. Employee Grievance Form.

- A. A grievance must be made in writing on a Grievance Form containing the following:
 - 1. The Employee's name;
 - 2. The Employee's class specification;
 - 3. A clear statement of the reasons for the Grievance and any supporting evidence;
 - 4. The date(s) on which the alleged action(s) occurred;
 - 5. The name(s) of the person(s) against whom the Grievance is made;
 - 6. The remedy sought;
 - 7. The name(s) of all witnesses the grievant plans to ask to testify, if applicable;

- B. Employee Grievance Forms, supporting documentation, grievance investigations, and grievance findings are confidential personnel information and shall not be disclosed. All files related to a grievance information shall be kept in a separate file from the Classified Employee's personnel record.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Section 6-108. Before Filing a Grievance.

An employee who feels he or she has an issue to grieve should try to resolve the problem by discussing it with his or her immediate supervisor. If after such discussion, the employee does not feel the issue has been satisfactorily resolved, he or she shall have the right to discuss the matter within the chain of command including the department head or bring the issue to the Office of Human Resources. Grievances involving the allegation of sexual harassment or discriminatory behavior may be made directly to the Office of Human Resources. Effort should be made to resolve the grievance by informal means at the most immediate level of supervision. If the employee is not in agreement with the decision reached through such informal discussions, he or she shall have the right to file a grievance in writing with his or her department head.

Section 6-109. Filing a Grievance.

- A. If a problem or issue is not or cannot be settled informally through discussion, within thirty (30) calendar days after the date of the event causing the problem or issue the Classified Employee may file a written grievance on an Employee Grievance Form with:
1. The Department Head in the Classified Employee's chain of command;
 2. The Director of Human Resources, if the problem or issue directly results from a decision or action of the County Administrator.
 3. The County Administrator, if the problem or issue directly results from a decision or action of the Department Head. The County Attorney, if the problem or issue directly results from a decision or action of the County Administrator AND the Director of Human Resources.
 4. The external legal counsel appointed to serve the Employee Grievance Panel, if the problem or issue directly results from a decision or action of the County Administrator AND the Director of Human Resources AND the County Attorney. Before a formal investigation, external legal counsel shall conduct an initial review and determine if there is a reasonable basis to exclude the County Attorney, the County Administrator, and/or the Director of Human Resources.
- B. If a grievance is not filed within the prescribed time limit, the decision shall stand and no further grievance or appeal may be made.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Section 6-110. Grievance filed with Department Head.

Upon receipt of a grievance, the Department Head shall:

A. Determine if the matter may be grieved pursuant to this chapter in consultation with the Office of Human Resources. If the Department Head concludes that the matter may not be grieved, within seven (7) calendar days after the grievance is filed, the Department Head shall so advise Grievant by written determination, hand delivered to the Grievant or mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address provided on the Employee Grievance Form.

B. If the matter may be grieved, the Department Head shall:

1. Notify of the Office of Human Resources the grievance has been accepted;
2. Notify the County Administrator a grievance process is underway;
3. Investigate the grievance including but not limited to interviewing the Grievant, interviewing other persons believed to have personal knowledge of the problem or issue, and review and copy any relevant documentation.

Chapter 7
Probation

Section 7-101. Probation

- A. Probation Defined. Probation is the period of time specified in Section 7-102 when the work of a recently hired Employee or a newly promoted Employee is closely observed for compliance with the Employee's Class Specification and performance standards. The probationary period allows the Employee to make needed adjustments in his or her work performance and it allows the Employer to determine whether the Employee fits into the position.
1. If a Contract Employee or a Temporary Employee is awarded a position in the Classified Service, such Employee shall be considered a recently hired Probationary Employee.
 2. If a Classified Employee in good standing is promoted, such Employee shall be considered a newly promoted Probationary Employee.
 3. If a Classified Employee in good standing is promoted to an At-Will position (see Section 2-102), such Employee shall be an At-Will Employee, not a newly promoted Probationary Employee.
 4. If a Classified Employee was not in good standing (e.g., such Employee had poor performance evaluations, had received written warnings or other more serious disciplinary admonishments (see Sections 5-103A.3 through 5-103A.7) during the year prior to transfer to a new position, and instead of pursuing dismissal or other employment sanctions against such Employee, Employer and such Employee agreed to try such Employee in a new position, such Employee shall be considered a recently hired Probationary Employee when transferred or moved to the new position.
- B. Dismissal of Recently Hired Probationary Employee.
1. A recently hired Probationary Employee is employed on an "at-will" status and may be separated from County employment with or without cause.
 2. A recently hired Probationary Employee may be dismissed upon being provided with written notification of the date of dismissal.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

3. The immediate supervisor may request the dismissal of a recently hired Probationary Employee, but the Department Head and the Personnel Administrator must concur in the recommendation before the dismissal is effected. All records concerning the Employee's performance prior to dismissal and the reasons for dismissal shall be maintained in the Probationary Employee's Personnel file.
4. The decision to dismiss a recently hired Probationary Employee is final and may not be grieved or appealed.

C. Benefits.

1. A recently hired Probationary Employee shall not be a Permanent Employee and shall not enjoy all the job protections and job benefits provided to a Permanent Employee under these Personnel Rules and Regulations.
2. A newly promoted Probationary Employee, who previously was a Classified Employee in good standing, shall retain (if promoted to a position in the Classified Service) or shall carry over (if promoted to an At-Will position) the same job benefits he or she had in the former Classified position.

D. The probationary status of an Employee shall end if:

1. The Employee serves the probationary period provided in Section 7-102 and receives an overall rating of "meets expectation" or higher on the Employee's most recent performance evaluation; or
2. If the Employee is separated from service.

E. When an Employee's probationary status terminates, the Personnel Administrator shall notify the Employee by mail, which may include county interoffice mail or e-mail, of the change in status.

Section 7-102. Probationary Periods.

- A. Recently hired and newly promoted Employees in clerical, technical, and hourly wage positions shall each serve a six-month probation.
- B. Recently hired and newly promoted Employees in management and administrative positions that are not clerical positions or At-Will positions (see Section 2-102A) shall each serve a one-year probation.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- C. A recently hired or a newly promoted correctional officer shall serve a one-year probation. Successful completion of probation for correctional officers shall require the Employee to pass state-required training classes during probation.
- D. A recently hired or a newly promoted public safety dispatcher, EMT-B, EMT-I, and EMT-P shall serve nine month probation.
- E. An Employee's Department Head, with the approval of the Personnel Administrator, may extend the probationary periods provided under Subsections 7-102A through 7-102D upon request. The extension shall not exceed one-half of the period initially provided for probation. A newly promoted Probationary Employee whose probationary period is extended pursuant to this Subsection shall not be entitled to placement in the same or an equivalent position previously held by such Employee in the event Employer decides not to retain such Employee in the newly promoted position. The newly promoted Probationary Employee therefore shall be afforded an opportunity to accept demotion pursuant to Section 7-101C in lieu of an extension of the probationary period pursuant to this Subsection.

Section 7-103. Evaluations During Probation.

- A. An Employee serving probation shall, at a minimum, be evaluated by his/her immediate supervisor at least once during the probationary period, if such Employee is not dismissed prior to the midpoint of the probationary period. (See Section 11-103A).
- B. In addition to the evaluation required under Subsection (A) of this section, performance evaluations may be conducted at other times during probation when the Employee's supervisor believes an evaluation would be useful.
- C. A copy of any completed evaluation made pursuant to this section shall be forwarded to the Personnel Administrator within seven (7) working days after the date on which the evaluation was completed and shall be placed in the Employee's personnel file.

Chapter 8
Leave

Section 8-100. Introduction.

The goal of the County's Employee leave system is to maximize the wellness, safety, and productivity of its workforce. The County grants employees leave time for a wide range of reasons. Some types of leave are required by state and federal laws. Others exist to allow employees to pursue interests outside of work, enjoy time with family and friends, and hopefully achieve a positive "work-life balance." As compared to most employers, the County offers a very generous leave system. It is important for employees to use this system responsibly. This means seeking permission when required, providing documentation when requested, completing necessary forms, and using leave for the reasons intended.

Section 8-101. Leave Records.

The Director of Human Resources shall be responsible for establishing and maintaining accurate records of leave earned and taken by Employees. All Employees have access to leave balances through the County's electronic payroll system. If an Employee feels a leave balance is incorrect, the Employee should contact the Office of Human Resources immediately. All leave taken by an Employee shall be properly and promptly recorded in the County's electronic payroll system. Failure to report leave taken, misstating leave taken, and/or submitting false information of any kind related to leave may be subject to other disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Section 8-102. At-Will Employees.

The leave to which an At-Will Employee is entitled may be altered by written contract or agreement where all such contracts must comply with state and federal leave laws. If an At-Will Employee does not have a written employment contract, or such contract does not modify or alter the leave provided pursuant to this Chapter, the leave benefits afforded such At-Will Employee shall be in accordance with this Chapter.

Section 8-103. Temporary and Contractual Employees.

- A. Temporary and Contractual Employees shall not be entitled to any of the leave benefits of this Chapter except as follows:
1. "Sick and safe leave" if qualified under the Maryland Healthy Working Families Act "MHWFA".
 2. Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") leave if qualified under the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

3. Annual, personal and holiday leave if authorized in a signed employment agreement.

Section 8-104. Annual Leave (Vacation).

- A. Permanent full-time Employees including probationary Employees shall accrue annual leave according to the schedule established in this section.
- B. A Permanent Employee may use accrued annual leave. Each Permanent Employee shall use at least five days of accrued annual leave each year. An Employee may carry forward unused, accrued, annual leave, up to a maximum carry-over of 440 hours (55 days). Amounts of accrued annual leave exceeding 440 hours days shall be forfeited at the end of the calendar year unless an extension is granted by the County Administrator.
- C. A recently hired Probationary Employee shall not use any accrued annual leave during the first six (6) months of employment. For a recently hired Probationary Employee who must serve a one-year probation period, if such Probationary Employee has a good performance record and has not had any absentee or late arrival problems, the Department Head, in his/her sole discretion, may allow such Probationary Employee to use accrued annual leave after the first six (6) months of the probation period.
- D. The Department Head, in his/her sole discretion, may allow a newly promoted Probationary Employee to use accrued annual leave provided such newly promoted Probationary Employee has a good performance record in the new position.
- E. In the absence of an unusual or extraordinary circumstance, an Employee may not use annual leave without obtaining the prior approval of the Department Head. Each Department Head may establish procedures or a system for scheduling annual leave that assures the least interruption to the efficient operation of the department. In the absence of unusual or extraordinary circumstances, at a minimum, fourteen (14) working days' notice shall be required before annual leave may be taken, and consideration may be given to whether other Employees previously requested and had leave approved, which could affect coverage, in determining whether to approve a request for annual leave.
- F. Subject to any written employment agreement and the requirements of Chapter 12 of these Personnel Rules and Regulations, an Employee who separates from service with Employer may be paid for any amounts of accrued and unused annual leave, up to a maximum of 440 hours of unused annual leave, at his or her highest level of pay under the Compensation Plan. Upon the death of an Employee, the Employee's designated beneficiary or Employee's estate (if no beneficiary) shall receive payment of up to 440 hours of accrued and unused annual leave at the highest level of pay under the Compensation Plan held by the decedent.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- G. Using an Employee’s anniversary date to compute years of service with Employer, a Full-Time Employee shall accrue annual leave as follows:

Years of Service	Annual Accumulation
0 through 5	80 hours (10 days ¹)
6 through 10	120 hours (15 days ¹)
11 through 20	160 hours (20 days ¹)
More than 20	200 hours (25 days ¹)

¹ “Days” as defined by an eight-hour shift for employees normally assigned such shifts.

- H. A Part-Time Employee shall accrue annual leave as provided herein, except that the rate of accrual shall be prorated to be commensurate with the hours the Employee is scheduled to work, using a 40-hour work week as a basis for the computation.

Section 8-105. Sick and Safe Leave.

- A. Policy. Sick and Safe leave (SSL) is provided so that a qualifying Employee may obtain necessary medical care and treatment and/or assist in providing necessary medical care and treatment to such Employee’s family and for the other reasons listed below. SSL should be used only for the reasons defined in this section. SSL is not to be used as additional vacation or personal time. An Employee who develops a pattern of using SSL on Mondays or Fridays, or before or after holidays or other types of leave, in order to extend time off from work, or who in any way abuses SSL may be subject to other disciplinary action up to and including termination.
- B. FMLA. In accordance with federal law (FMLA) and its regulations, qualifying employees may take up to 12 weeks of leave during a 12-month period for events, such as a serious medical condition, to care for a spouse, child or parent with a serious medical condition or to care for a newborn or adopted child. Regardless of total amount of sick leave accrued, an employee is not entitled to nor will be allowed to take more than 12-weeks of sick leave (paid or unpaid) in any 12-month period. Under extraordinary circumstance the County Administrator, may approve sick leave beyond 12-weeks in any 12-month period. Employee’s employment may be terminated at the expiration of FMLA sick leave. In such event, unused sick time will be paid to the employee in accordance with policies then in effect.
- C. Who May Accrue Sick and Safe Leave. Permanent Employees including employees on probation shall accrue sick and safe leave (SSL). Temporary, part-time, seasonal, and contractual employees who are regularly scheduled to work 12 or more hours per week also are eligible for SSL. Part-time, contractual employees who can accept or decline shifts and who are not required to work a regularly scheduled schedule are not eligible for SSL.

D. Rate of Accrual. A Full-Time Employee shall accrue 3.39 hours of sick and safe leave per biweekly pay period. Excepted as provided herein, temporary, part-time, seasonal, and/or contractual employees who are regularly scheduled to work 12 or more hours per week shall accrue sick and safe leave at the rate of one (1) hour for every 30 hours worked.

E. Definition of Family Member. For the purpose of this section, family member means:

1. A biological child, an adopted child, a foster child, or a stepchild of the employee;
2. A child for whom the employee has legal or physical custody or guardianship;
3. A child for whom the employee stands in loco parentis, regardless of the child's age; a biological parent, an adoptive parent, a foster parent, or a stepparent of the employee or of the employee's spouse;

F. Use of Sick and Safe Leave. Accrued sick and safe leave(SSL) must be used:

1. To care for or treat an Employee's mental or physical illness, injury, or condition including leave that qualifies for Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave;
2. To obtain preventive medical care for the employee or employee's family member;
3. To care for a family member with a mental or physical illness, injury, or condition;

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

4. For maternity or paternity leave; or
5. To care for an Employee or family member where a work absence is necessary due to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against the Employee or their family member. This includes:
 - a. Medical or service mental health attention;
 - b. Services from a victim services organization;
 - c. Legal services;
 - d. Attendance at legal proceedings;

G. FMLA/MHWA Sick and Safe Leave Interface. Caroline County is required to comply with two different laws governing employee sick leave: The Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and the Maryland Healthy Working Families Act (MHWA). In broad terms, FMLA requires the County to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave per year. It also requires that their group health benefits be maintained during the leave. Also in broad terms, MHWA requires the County to provide paid “sick and safe leave” to qualified full and part-time employees.

It is beyond the scope of the County’s Personnel Rules & Regulations to explain in detail the complex rules and regulations of FMLA and MHWFA. The goal is to explain how the two types of leave work and to emphasize the importance of an Employee working closely with the County’s Office of Human Resources.

In general, an Employee with an accrued balance of sick and safe leave (SSL) is expected to exhaust this paid leave before taking unpaid FMLA leave. An Employee eligible for SSL may not be eligible for FMLA leave. For FMLA leave, an Employee must have: 1) worked for the County for at least 12 months, and; 2) worked at least 1,250 hours for the County during the 12 months prior to the FMLA leave. For SSL, the accrual of leave begins immediately upon employment for qualified employees. For employees not qualified to earn sick leave under the previous Personnel Rules & Regulations but qualified to earn SSL under the MHWA and working for the County on January 1, 2018, shall begin accruing SSL as of that date.

H. Obligations regarding Sick and Safe Leave (SSL).

1. If the need to use earned Sick and Safe Leave (SSL) is foreseeable, the Employee will provide notice to his or her supervisor and/or Department Head at least seven calendar days before the leave begins.
2. If the need to use the leave is not foreseeable, the Employee must provide notice to his or her supervisor and/or Department Head as soon as practicable.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

3. A Department Head may deny a request to take earned Sick and Safe Leave (SSL) if the Employee fails to provide the required notice and if the employee's absence will cause a disruption.
 4. During the first 120 days of employment, an Employee using Sick and Safe Leave (SSL) is required to provide verification of the reason for the leave use.
 5. If an Employee uses Sick and Safe Leave (SSL) for more than two consecutive scheduled shifts, he or she may be required to provide verification of the reason for the leave use
 6. If an Employee fails or refuses to provide verification as required, the Department Head may deny a subsequent request for leave for the same reason.
 7. An Employee who becomes ill or incapacitated while at work shall inform his or her supervisor (or the next person up the chain of command in the absence of the immediate supervisor) prior to departing the workplace. Employee's supervisor shall ask Employee directly, or shall otherwise ascertain, whether the event that requires Employee to discontinue work qualifies as a workers' compensation claim. Employee's supervisor shall require Employee to see a physician if a workers' compensation claim is likely, in the supervisor's judgment.
- I. Accrual limit. A Full-Time Employee shall not be limited in Sick and Safe Leave (SSL) accrued. A temporary, part-time, seasonal, and/or contractual employees shall be limited to an annual accrual of no more than forty (40 hours) with a maximum cap of sixty-four (64 hours) of Sick and Safe Leave.
- J. Benefit Upon Separation/Retirement.
1. LEOPS participants: Employees enrolled in the Law Enforcement Officers' Pension System (LEOPS) shall be eligible to turn in accrued Sick and Safe Leave for retirement credit as allowed by LEOPS and as may be amended from time to time.
 2. Caroline County pension participants: Upon retirement or voluntary separation, an employee enrolled and vested in the County pension plan shall be eligible to turn in accrued Sick and Safe leave for retirement credit in the County pension plan at the same ratio as afforded to participants in the Law Enforcement Officers' Pension System (LEOPS) and as may be amended from time to time. Retirement credit earned from sick leave turn in shall not count towards the service time required for eligibility to retire.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

3. Other employees. Other employees earning Sick and Safe Leave shall not receive any payment or credit for unused SSL upon termination of employment.

K. Hardship Leave Bank.

1. Purpose. The purpose of the Hardship Leave Bank is to provide paid leave to employees facing significant medical or personal issues, when they have exhausted all sick and safe leave, vacation, and personal leave time and are not receiving temporary disability benefits under workers' compensation.

 - a. Effective September 19, 2018, the hours accumulated in the County's previous Sick Leave Bank shall be transferred to the Hardship Leave Bank.

Examples of purposes for which the Hardship Bank may be used include the loss of a home due to fire or extended bereavement leave.
 - c. Flexible Use Permitted. Unless an employee is taking leave under the Family Medical Leave Act, leave used from the Hardship Bank may be tailored to meet the employee's specific situation. For example, Hardship Leave may be used for partial days or non-consecutive days.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

4. Process.

b. Approval.

In addition, if a husband and wife both are employed by Employer and both request leave due to the birth or placement of a child or to care for an ill parent, both spouses together may take only a combined total of 12 weeks during any rolling 12-month period.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

E. Procedures.

1. Notice of Leave

- a. Employees who are considering applying for FMLA leave should contact the Benefits Coordinator to obtain the necessary forms and to discuss the process.
- b. Employee should complete the Request for Family and Medical Leave form and submit it to the Benefits Coordinator.
- c. If the need for FMLA leave is foreseeable, Employee must give Employer 30 days prior written notice by completing the Request for Family and Medical Leave form as indicated above. Failure to provide such notice may be grounds for delay of leave. Additionally, an Employee who requests leave for planned medical treatment must consult with his/her immediate supervisor and make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so as not to disrupt unduly the operations of Employer.
- d. Where the need for leave is not foreseeable, notice must be given as soon as practicable, usually within one or two business days of learning of the need for leave, except in extraordinary circumstances.
- e. When absent without prior approval, an Employee is expected to contact his immediate supervisor or the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator, in the absence of the immediate supervisor, to explain the reason for his/her absence and to indicate the date when Employee expects to return to work. If Employee will be out for a reason that may qualify as FMLA job protected leave, Employee should inform his/her immediate supervisor or the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator, in the absence of the immediate supervisor, to request the appropriate forms to apply for FMLA leave.
- f. If an Employee does not request FMLA leave, but is out on sick leave or leave that is not pre-approved for a period of over 3 consecutive calendar days (including weekends and holidays) and/or for repeated absences for a reason that may be FMLA qualified, Employee's immediate supervisor or the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator may forward Employee an FMLA packet in order to determine if the leave should be designated as FMLA leave. Employee shall complete the packet and, where appropriate, have Employee's health care provider complete the appropriate forms.
- g. Whenever Employer has sufficient information to determine that an Employee is absent for an FMLA qualifying reasons, Employer reserves the right to designate the leave as FMLA leave and count it toward Employee's 12-week entitlement.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

2. Medical Certification

- a. If the reason for leave is for Employee's own or a covered family member's serious health condition, Employee and Employee's health care provider or the health care provider for the qualifying relation (e.g., child or parent) may be required to provide appropriate medical certification, unless Employer determines that such certification is not required.
- b. Medical certification is due within 15 days after Employee requests leave or Employer provides Employee with FMLA forms pursuant to Subsection 8-108E.1.f. Failure to provide requested medical certification in a timely manner might result in denial of leave until such information is provided, which could result in leave without pay and an unexcused absence on Employee's record.
- c. Employer, at its expense, may require an examination by a second health care provider designated by Employer. If the second health care provider's opinion conflicts with the original medical certification, Employer, at its expense, may require a third, mutually agreeable, health care provider to conduct an examination and provide a final binding opinion.
- d. Employee may be requested to provide re-certification on a monthly basis to verify the need for Employee to remain on FMLA leave.
- e. Falsification of medical certification records or other false information supplied by Employee to obtain approval for leave will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

3. Length of Leave

- a. Eligible Employees may take up to 12 weeks of leave in a rolling 12-month period. For approved FMLA leave, the 12-month period is calculated on a "rolling" 12-month basis, measured backward from the date leave begins. For instance, if Employee requests an 8-week leave beginning August 1, 2004, and Employee was on FMLA leave from October 3, 2003 to November 11, 2003 (6 weeks), Employee would only be able to take 6 additional weeks under FMLA. (Thereafter, the County is not required to hold Employee's position (or an equivalent position) open for Employee, and if Employee does not have accrued and unused leave and does not

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- obtain approval to use such leave, Employee may be separated from Employment).
- b. Employee's entitlement to FMLA leave for birth or placement of a child expires 12 months after the birth or placement. (Note, if the child develops a serious health condition and Employee has FMLA Leave available, it could be used – this applies to “bonding” leave).
 - c. FMLA leave may be taken intermittently (in separate blocks of time) where medically necessary because of a serious health condition of Employee or a covered family member. Time taken intermittently for FMLA purposes will be tracked and deducted from Employee's 12-week entitlement. If the need for the leave is foreseeable, Employee must try to schedule the leave so as to not unduly disrupt Employer’s flow of work. Employer reserves the right to transfer Employee to a position with equivalent pay and benefits that better accommodates Employee's intermittent leave. Leave to care for a newly born child or a child placed with Employee for adoption or foster care may not be taken intermittently.
 - d. An Employee who fails to return to work immediately following expiration of the authorized leave period is subject to termination. All leave taken under this policy and leave for any other reason which would qualify under FMLA will be counted against Employee's 12 week leave entitlement under FMLA.
 - e. An Employee who has utilized FMLA for his/her own serious medical condition and cannot return to work within twelve (12) weeks shall complete a reasonable accommodation form. The form must be submitted five (5) days before the expiration of FMLA. The County will utilize the completed reasonable accommodation form to determine whether the employee may be eligible for a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act.
4. Reporting While on Leave. Employees on approved FMLA leave are required to contact the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator on the first Monday of each month regarding their status and intention to return to work.
 5. Use of Benefit Accruals
 - a. FMLA leave will run concurrently with Employee's paid leave. All paid leave will be exhausted before Employee may begin taking leave without pay. If all accrued paid leave (i.e., annual, sick and personal leave) is exhausted while Employee is on FMLA leave, any approved balance of the

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

FMLA leave is unpaid. An Employee will not accrue benefits during unpaid FMLA leave. (See Section 8-112B).

- b. After 12 workweeks of paid and/or unpaid FMLA leave has been taken in a rolling 12-month period, Employee may be dismissed from County Employment and his/her position will no longer be protected. An employee is entitled only to twelve (12) work weeks of FMLA leave in a rolling twelve (12) month period before being subject to dismissal for failure to come to work and perform Employee's duties and obligations.

6. Health and Other Benefits

- a. During an approved FMLA leave, Employer will maintain Employee's health benefits, as if Employee continued to be actively employed.
- b. Employees using benefit accruals (sick, vacation and/or personal leave) while on leave will continue to have the contributory portion of their health benefits deducted from their paycheck.
- c. Premiums paid by Employer are continued as a condition of Employee's expected return to work. If Employee elects not to return to work at the end of the leave period, Employee will be required to reimburse Employer for the cost of premiums paid for maintaining coverage during the leave, unless Employee cannot return to work because of a serious health condition or other circumstances beyond his/her control. Employer may deduct the amount due from any sums owed the non-returning Employee (such as final paycheck, and leave accruals).
- d. An Employee on FMLA leave is not eligible for COBRA (i.e., the Comprehensive Omnibus Budget and Reconciliation Act of 1985) coverage unless he/she does not return from leave.

7. Outside Employment. An Employee who accepts outside employment while on FMLA leave will have the leave revoked and will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

8. Returning from Leave

- a. An Employee returning from leave due to a serious health condition will be required to provide medical certification from his/her health care provider to the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator that he/she is able to resume work and perform all of the essential functions of Employee's position.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- b. An eligible Employee returning from FMLA leave shall be restored to the same position that Employee held when the leave started, or to an equivalent position. An equivalent position is one with equivalent benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment.
 - c. Any increase in pay or changes in benefits that occurred during the time when Employee was on FMLA leave will be made effective upon Employee's return to work.
9. Failure to Return to Work. Failure to return to work on the originally scheduled return date from FMLA leave will be considered a voluntary termination by Employee, unless:
- a. The failure to return was caused by legitimate medical reasons or circumstances beyond the control of the Employee and Employee promptly notified Employer of the circumstances;
 - b. Employee obtained prior approval from the Personnel Administrator (i.e., the County Administrator) to continue leave beyond the 12 week period;
 - c. Employee obtained approved leave without pay pursuant to Section 8-112A.2.
- F. Resource: If you anticipate the possibility of taking FMLA leave, or if you have any questions about the application of this policy to your particular situation, please contact the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator.

In accordance with Article 65, Section 42 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, an Employee who serves in the organized militia or in the Army, Navy, Air, Marine, Coast Guard or National Guard Reserve is entitled to up to fifteen (15) additional days of leave to engage in such service. The Department Head shall forward the request and a recommendation to accept or deny the leave to the Personnel Administrator. The Personnel Administrator may grant the leave with the consent of the County Commissioners, and with or without conditions.
2. Leave without pay shall be granted to an Employee entitled to FMLA leave who has exhausted all of his/her paid leave but is still entitled to additional FMLA leave before the County no longer needs to protect such Employee's position with the County. (See Section 8-108E.5.a).

B. An Employee on leave without pay may remain in the retirement and insurance systems, provided the Employee pays both the Employee and Employer share of the costs.

C. Prior to accepting other employment during a leave without pay, Employee shall make a written request to the Department Head, who will forward the request to the Personnel Administrator. The Personnel Administrator will submit the request, along with his or her recommendation, to the County Commissioners, which may deny or grant the request. If

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Section 8-113. Furlough.

1. A revenue shortfall during the fiscal year that requires a reduction in expenditures for a department, agency, or office; or

- B. When a furlough is considered, the County Administrator shall submit a plan for furloughing Employees to the County Commissioners. The County Commissioners may modify and revise the proposed plan and, ultimately, may adopt a furlough plan by resolution. An adopted furlough plan shall, at the minimum, set forth the following:
1. The circumstances necessitating the furlough;
 2. The methods or rationale used to identify or determine the persons or groups to be furloughed;
 3. The Employees or groups of Employees to be furloughed and those who will not be furloughed;
 4. The number of days and hours such Employees will be furloughed and the specific dates furloughs will occur;

- C. Generally, a furlough plan will not require any Employee to take more than one furlough day or eight (8) furlough hours of regularly scheduled work time, whichever is greater, in any given two-week period. The furlough plan may require an Employee to take more than one furlough day or eight furlough hours in a two-week period only if the County Commissioners determine that closing offices will be the most efficient method of resolving the fiscal problems necessarily the furlough.
- D. A furlough shall not affect an Employee's group health insurance coverage with Employer.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Section 8-114. Bereavement Leave.

Section 8-115. Tracking Leave for Units of State Government Funded by the County.

The employees of certain State agencies and units of State Government, such as the Sheriff's Department, the State's Attorney's Office, the Caroline County Circuit Court, the Board of Elections, the Cooperative Extension or the Soil Conservation District, etc., that are not Employees of Employer, the County, but that are funded by the County pursuant to State law, have provided leave benefits that mirror those provided to Employees pursuant to this Chapter of the Personnel Rules and Regulations. Where the County assists such State agencies and units of State Government with their payroll, and thus, with tracking the leave provided to the employees of those State agencies and units of State government, such assistance does not make those State employees County Employees, and does not entitle those State employees to the leave provided pursuant to this Chapter of the County's Personnel Rules and Regulations. The State officials responsible for establishing the leave policies for such agencies and units of State government do not have to adopt the County's leave system. The fact that those officials have chosen to adopt the County's leave system and have requested the County, in the spirit of intergovernmental cooperation and the judicious use of public funds and taxpayer revenues to track leave for their employees shall not make the State employees of such agencies and units of State government

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

County Employees, and does not give the County any right to dictate the leave that, ultimately, will be provided to such State employees.

Chapter 9
Retirement, Health and Other Benefits

Section 9-101. Retirement.

A. Caroline County, Maryland Employees' Pension Plan.

1. All Permanent Employees, except those who are eligible for and enrolled in the Public Safety Retirement Plan (see Subsection A.5 below), who are scheduled to work at least 20 hours per week are eligible for and automatically enrolled in the Caroline County, Maryland, Employees' Pension Plan (the "Pension Plan") from their date of hire.
2. The language and terms of the Pension Plan shall control eligibility and entitlement to benefits. The below synopsis is provided solely as an approximate overview of the Pension Plan. Generally, the Employees listed in Subsection A.1 become eligible for full retirement benefits when they separate from County employment after either:
 - a. Thirty (30) years of eligible service; or
 - b. Reaching age 62 or older and completion of five (5) full years of eligible service.
3. A detailed copy of the Pension Plan, the terms of which control eligibility and entitlement to benefits, is maintained and available for review in the Office of Human Resources.
4. Some employees of certain State agencies and units of State Government that are not Employees of Employer, the County, but that are funded by the County pursuant to State law, also have been allowed to participate and become enrolled in the Pension Plan. Participation in the Pension Plan has been afforded to such State employees in the spirit of intergovernmental cooperation, prudent expenditure of taxpayer revenue and as an accommodation to the State officials that oversee such agencies, so that they do not have to hire and support separate administrative employees to process payroll and procure and manage an alternative pension system. State officials and employees of the following State agencies and units of State government have been included in the Pension Plan:
 - a. The State's Attorney's Office; and
 - b. The Circuit Court for Caroline County.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

5. The County has funded a separate Public Safety Retirement Plan for certain of its Employees and for members of the Sheriff's Department. Providing such benefit to members of the Sheriff's Department has been offered to such State employees in the spirit of intergovernmental cooperation, prudent expenditure of taxpayer revenue and as an accommodation to the Sheriff, so that he/she does not have to hire and support separate administrative employees to procure and manage an alternative pension system.
 6. Sharing and procuring a pension benefit with the above mentioned State agencies and units of State government shall not make the State officials and/or employees with and for whom such pension benefit is shared and procured County Employees, does not give the County any right to control such State officials or employees or to interfere in any way with the supervision and management of such State officials or employees, and is not intended to make the County a dual employer of such State officials or employees.
- B. Permanent Employees shall have the option of enrolling in a deferred compensation plan at their own expense.
- I. The County Commissioners, at their sole discretion, may provide retirement benefits to other Employees.

Section 9-102. Workers' Compensation.

- A. Employer and Employees shall comply with the provisions of Maryland's Workers' Compensation Act. (See Title 9 of the Labor and Employment Article of the Maryland Annotated Code).

- C. If an injury for which an Employee makes a workers' compensation claim is found to be non-compensable or not covered under Maryland's Workers' Compensation Act, and the Employee has missed work as a result of the injury, such Employee shall use, and therefore lose, accrued sick leave, annual leave and/or personal leave equivalent to the Employee's period of absence. If Employee has insufficient accrued leave, Employee shall reimburse the County for days compensated while such Employee was off work for the injury.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Section 9-103. Health Coverage.

- A. Employer has provided health coverage to Permanent and Probationary Employees, although this is subject to change. Currently, such health coverage becomes available the first of the month following employment. The language and terms of each health coverage plan offered by the County will control eligibility for and the benefits provided by such plan notwithstanding any statement in this Section.
- B. An eligible Employee may elect not to obtain health coverage through Employer. Employees receiving a payment for not participating in the County's health insurance plan as of June 30, 2014, may continue to receive such payment, however, 1) The amount shall be frozen at the rate paid effective June 30, 2014; 2) The amount shall not be increased thereafter; and 3) If an employee leave County employment and returns or enrolls in the County's health insurance plan, the employee shall no longer be eligible for the payment.

Employees receiving such payment shall provide proof of health insurance annually to the Office of Human Resources.

For all other employees, the County shall make no payment nor provide other compensation for not participating in the County's health insurance plan.

The County reserves the right to phase in or eliminate the subsidy provided to employees for not participating in the County's health insurance plan at any time. Whatever the County elects and agrees to do will be implemented on a uniform and non-discriminatory basis.

- C. Employer has provided a dental plan for Permanent and Probationary Employees, although this is subject to change. The language of any such plan will control eligibility for and the benefits provided by such plan. Employer's dental plan currently is available the first day after 30 calendar days of employment. The cost of coverage is paid entirely by covered Employees through payroll deductions. If Employee does not enroll in the Employer-sponsored health plan, Employer, upon request, has, in the past, and may, but is not obligated to pay a portion Employee's cost for the dental plan. Under such circumstances, Employer's contribution shall equal the lesser of the cost of the dental plan or the amount Employer would pay for the Employee under the Employer-sponsored health plan, less any amounts the Employer pays for health insurance coverage as provided in Subsection 9-103B.
- D. A Contractual Employee may receive health and dental benefits only if specified in a written employment contract.
- E. The employees of certain State agencies and units of State Government that are not Employees of the County, but that are funded by the County pursuant to State law, also may be provided health coverage through the County's health program. Such health coverage is offered to these State employees in the spirit of intergovernmental cooperation, prudent expenditure of taxpayer revenue and as an accommodation to the State officials that oversee these agencies, so that they do not have to hire and support separate administrative employees to procure health coverage for their employees, process payroll deductions, and administer a health coverage plan. Health coverage currently is offered to State officials and employees of the following State agencies and units of State government are included:

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

1. The State's Attorney's Office;
2. The Circuit Court for Caroline County; and
3. The Sheriff's Department.

Sharing this benefit with these State agencies and units of State government shall not make the State officials and/or employees with whom this benefit is shared County Employees, does not give the County any right to control such officials or employees or interfere in any way with the supervision and management of such officials or employees, and is not intended to make the County a dual employer of such officials or employees.

- F. The most up-to-date information about health care benefits, as well as copies of all applicable plans and plan summaries may be obtained from the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator.
- G. Once the County Commissioners elect the health care benefits that will be provided and the level of funding for such benefits, the Personnel Administrator is responsible for delivery and administering such benefits in a non-discriminatory manner.

Section 9-104. Disability Insurance.

- A. Employer has provided long-term disability insurance for Permanent Employees and has paid the entire (100%) premium cost, although this is subject to change. The plan language will control eligibility and coverage notwithstanding any statement in this Section.
- B. The employees of certain State agencies and units of State Government that are not Employees of the County, but that are funded by the County pursuant to State law, also have been allowed to participate in the County's long-term disability program. Such long-term disability insurance has been offered to these State employees in the spirit of intergovernmental cooperation, prudent expenditure of taxpayer revenue and as an accommodation to the State officials that oversee these agencies, so that they do not have to hire and support separate administrative employees to procure a long-term disability insurance benefit for their employees and process payroll deductions and administer such benefit. Long term disability insurance has been offered to State officials and employees of the following State agencies and units of State government:

1. The State's Attorney's Office;
2. The Circuit Court for Caroline County; and
3. The Sheriff's Department.

Sharing such benefit with such State agencies and units of State government shall not make the State officials and/or employees with whom this benefit is shared County Employees, does not give the County any right to control such officials or employees or to interfere in any way with the supervision and management of such officials or employees, and is not intended to make the County a dual employer of such officials or employees.

Section 9-105. Health Care Benefits for Retired Employees.

A. The Employer provides certain health insurance benefits for retired employees. The benefit differs based on the age of the Retiree and the Retiree's qualified years of pension service.

1. Retirees eligible for Medicare

If a qualified Retiree has at least 20 years of qualified service and is eligible for Medicare, the Employer may provide a Medicare supplement plan. If a Retiree does not have at least 20 years of County service and is eligible for Medicare, the Retiree may purchase the County's Medicare supplement plan at the full normal cost.

2. Retirees not eligible for Medicare

The Employer may provide a subsidy to qualified Retirees through a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) to help Retirees not yet eligible for Medicare pay health insurance premiums. To receive this reimbursement payment through the HRA, the Retiree must meet the following conditions:

For the purpose of Section 9-105.A.2., "County service" shall mean years of full-time employment in Caroline County government or the Caroline County Sheriff's Office where the employee participated in the Caroline County pension system or the Maryland Law Enforcement Officer's Pension System.

For the purpose of Section 9-105.A.2.A, "30 years of CAROLINE County service" under the Law Enforcement Officer's Pension System (LEOPS) shall be the equivalent of thirty (30) years of service as calculated by LEOPS, and as may be subsequently amended from time to time.

The employees of certain State agencies and units of State Government that are not Employees of the County, but that are funded by the County pursuant to State law, also may be provided group life insurance. Such group life insurance is offered to such State employees in the spirit of intergovernmental cooperation, prudent expenditure of taxpayer revenue and as an accommodation to the State officials that oversee those agencies, so that they do not have to hire and support separate administrative employees to procure a life insurance benefit for their employees, to process payroll deductions and to administer a life insurance benefit. Group life insurance has been offered to State officials and employees of the following State agencies and units of State government:
 - 1. The State's Attorney's Office;
 - 2. The Circuit Court for Caroline County; and
 - 3. The Sheriff's Department.

Sharing such benefit with such State agencies and units of State government shall not make the State officials and/or employees with whom such benefit is shared County Employees, does not give the County any right to control such officials or employees or interfere in any way with the supervision and management of such officials or employees, and is not intended to make the County a dual employer of such officials or employees.

- D. The County Commissioners, at their discretion, may elect to discontinue this benefit, or to substantially alter or amend this benefit.

This payment shall be made from the other post-employment benefits (OPEB) fund to the beneficiary designated by the retiree. Chapter 11
Employee Performance Evaluation

Section 11-101. The Performance Evaluation System.

- A. Overview. The Employee performance evaluation system is a process for observing and reviewing work performance; recognizing its quality; identifying needs for improvement; and working with an Employee to improve effectiveness in order to maximize the use of Employee's knowledge, skills and abilities.
- B. Purpose. The Performance evaluation process provides a structured opportunity for an Employee to meet with his/her direct supervisor and discuss the supervisor's expectations of Employee, Employee's strengths and weaknesses, and other issues that affect the job and Employee's ability to succeed at the job.
1. A supervisor's performance evaluation will, in part, be predicated on such supervisor's ability to motivate, manage, and obtain productivity from such supervisor's direct reports. Therefore a supervisor must critically assess the strengths and weaknesses of the Employees that he/she directly supervises, quickly address deficiencies, and positively reinforce strengths and valuable contributions.
 2. An Employee must always be respectful of his/her supervisor. An Employee should use the evaluation process to self assess areas where he/she might improve his/her performance and the overall performance of the team for which he/she works. An Employee should feel comfortable respectfully voicing concerns and suggestions for training or operational enhancements as part of the evaluation process. An Employee must recognize that suggestions may not be acted upon for any number of reasons, but there is value in such exchanges to all concerned when conducted in a respectful and professional manner.
- C. Impact to Employee. The evaluation shall be considered in determining an Employee's pay increment.

Section 11-102. Personnel Administrator and Performance Evaluations.

The Personnel Administrator shall be responsible for the overall administration of Employee performance evaluations. Responsibilities include training and advising Department Heads and supervisors to ensure performance evaluations are conducted properly, communicating the intent and process of performance evaluations to Employees, and overseeing the appeals process.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

Section 11-103. Probationary Period and Performance Evaluation.

- A. Each Probationary Employee shall be evaluated by his or her supervisor at the midpoint of the probationary period. However, failure to conduct a written evaluation within the probationary period does not deprive Employer of its right to terminate a Probationary Employee at will and without cause with the concurrence of the Personnel Administrator.
- B. Additional evaluations may be conducted during probation at the discretion of the supervisor.
- C. Copies of the completed evaluation forms shall be forwarded to the Personnel Administrator within seven (7) working days after the date on which the evaluation was completed.
- D. Only Probationary Employees receiving at least an overall “meets expectations” rating on their evaluation shall be moved from probationary status to permanent status. A letter of permanent appointment shall be sent to the Employee by the Personnel Administrator informing them of their change in status.

Section 11-104. Annual Performance Evaluation.

- A. Each Permanent Employee shall receive an annual performance evaluation at a time specified by the Personnel Administrator. All other Employees may receive annual performance evaluations at times set by their supervisors. Employees may obtain from the Personnel Administrator a copy of the form used for the evaluation.
- B. An Employee’s supervisor shall prepare the performance evaluation of the Employee. The performance of the supervisor in managing and obtaining productivity from the Employees he/she directly supervises, including the proficient evaluation of the work of such Employees shall be considered in the supervisor’s performance evaluation, along with the performance of other duties and responsibilities of the supervisor.
- C. Before meeting with an Employee for a performance evaluation, the supervisor shall submit a preliminary evaluation of the Employee to the “Review Officer.” For purposes of these Personnel Rules and Regulations, the “Review Officer” shall be the person who supervises the person preparing the performance evaluation of an Employee, such as the Department Head.
- D. After meeting with the supervisor for purposes of discussing a performance evaluation, the Employee who was evaluated shall sign the performance evaluation. The signature by itself shall not signify that an Employee agrees with the evaluation. The signature shall signify that the Employee has received the evaluation personally and is aware of its content.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- E. The completed performance evaluation shall be forwarded through the Department Head to the Personnel Administrator. The personnel file of the Employee shall contain each performance evaluation that pertains to the Employee.
- F. An overall rating of “meets expectations” on the annual performance evaluation is required in order for an Employee to be eligible for an increase in in-grade pay increment.
- G. The Personnel Administrator shall certify to the payroll clerk when a given Employee is entitled to an increase in pay increment.

Section 11-105. Unsatisfactory Evaluations.

- A. An Employee who receives an overall rating that is below the “competent” or “meets expectation” level (i.e., a rating of “unsatisfactory” or “needs improvement”) on the annual evaluation shall not be eligible to receive an increase in-grade pay increment.
- B. During the meeting between the supervisor and the Employee for a performance evaluation, if Employee receives an unsatisfactory or needs improvement in any element of a performance evaluation, the supervisor shall prepare, submit and discuss with Employee a performance improvement plan that identifies the steps required for improvement and continued employment. A written summary of the meeting shall be prepared and a copy forwarded to the Employee and the Employee’s Department Head. The original written summary of the meeting shall be forwarded to the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator or the Personnel Administrator and shall be placed in Employee’s personnel folder.
- C. The supervisor shall conduct a follow-up performance evaluation after 90 days following the receipt of a rating of unsatisfactory or needs improvement in any element of a performance evaluation by an Employee. The 90-day performance evaluation and a written summary of the meeting shall be prepared and forwarded to:
 - 1. The Personnel Administrator;
 - 2. The Employee;
 - 3. The Employee’s Department Head.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- E. Even if performance in all areas rated unsatisfactory, needs improvement or lower improves to competent or meets expectations at the first 90-day review, a second 90-day review will be conducted to ensure that Employee sustains an acceptable level of performance. Such second 90-day performance evaluation and a written summary of the meeting shall be prepared and forwarded to:
1. The Personnel Administrator;
 2. The Employee;
 3. The Employee's Department Head.
- F. An Employee who receives an overall rating of "unsatisfactory" on the annual performance evaluation and fails to show significant and sustained improvement in the interim 90-day follow-up evaluations and/or the next annual evaluation shall be subject to dismissal.

Section 11-106. Performance Evaluation Overall Rating Appeal Procedure.

- A. Employee performance evaluations of an Employee shall not be subject to the grievance procedure provided in Chapter 6 of these Personnel Rules and Regulations. An Employee in the Classified Service, nevertheless, shall have the right to appeal his/her overall performance evaluation, but not any specific rating or specific comment pertaining to his/her formal evaluation, in accordance with the following procedure.
1. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving a performance evaluation, a Classified Employee who feels the overall rating is unfair and has an overall rating that is below "Meets Expectations" or "Competent" (i.e., the level where the Classified Employee no longer is entitled to an increase in in-grade pay increment) may request a meeting with the Review Officer to review the overall rating.
 2. The Review Officer shall meet with the Classified Employee within fourteen (14) days after receiving a request for review. Within fourteen (14) days following the meeting, the Review Officer shall dispose of the matter by rendering a written decision and forwarding it to the Classified Employee, with a copy to the supervisor and the Personnel Administrator, who shall place the decision in the Classified Employee's personnel file. If the Review Officer has not met with the Classified Employee within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a request for review, the Classified Employee shall consider the request denied and may proceed to request review from the Personnel Administrator by following the Procedure in Subsection 11-106A.3 (i.e., filing an appeal with the Personnel Administrator within seven (7) days after the tenth day after requesting a meeting with the Review Officer).

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

3. If the Classified Employee is dissatisfied with the Review Officer's decision, Employee may, within seven (7) days of receipt of the decision, appeal the performance evaluation report in writing to the Personnel Administrator. The Personnel Administrator shall, within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the written request, meet with the Classified Employee. If the Review Officer is the Personnel Administrator, the appeal shall be directed to the County Administrator. The County Administrator shall meet with Classified Employee within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the request, whichever is shortest. Within seven (7) days of the meeting, the Personnel Administrator or the County Administrator, whoever conducted the meeting, shall dispose of the matter by rendering a written decision and forwarding a copy to the Classified Employee, the Classified Employee's Department Head and the Classified Employee's immediate supervisor. A copy of the decision shall be placed in the Classified Employee's personnel file.

Section 11-107. Other Performance Evaluations.

- A. A supervisor may conduct a performance evaluation at any time deemed prudent by the supervisor.
- B. Prior to leaving a supervisory position or being transferred to a new position, a supervisor shall complete a performance evaluation on each Permanent and Probationary Employee under his/her supervision who has not been evaluated within the last six months.

(See Sections 9-107, Life Insurance, 8-104E, Annual Leave, 8-105G, Sick Leave, and 8-106E, Personal Leave).

Employees who punch a time clock (or log in and out of work), are paid on an hourly basis, and qualify for overtime compensation, as provided by the FLSA and the Wage and Hour regulations of the Department of Labor, generally will receive overtime pay for hours worked over 40 hours per week or, in the case of certain classifications of employees, for time worked in excess of the minimums established by the applicable Department of Labor regulations (i.e., “FLSA Non-Exempt” positions). Awarding compensatory time generally is a less preferred alternative to payment of overtime.
- B. At-Will Employees. At-Will Employees are salaried Employees and hold FLSA exempt positions that do not qualify for overtime pay. Overtime compensation shall not be paid to At-Will Employees and At-Will Employees are not eligible to earn compensatory time-off.
- C. FLSA Non-Exempt Employees. Employees who hold FLSA Non-Exempt positions shall be compensated at the rate of one and one-half times their normal hourly rate of pay for any hours worked in excess of the standard work week of 40 hours or, for law enforcement and corrections personnel, for hours worked in excess of 171 hours in a 28-day work cycle or 86 hours in a 14-day work cycle.
- D. Calculation of Hours Worked. Only authorized hours worked shall be counted as hours worked in a standard workweek or 28-day/14-day work cycle. Any other paid or unpaid leave taken during that period shall not be included in the calculation of hours worked.
- E. Compensatory Time-Off. Compensatory time may be provided, in lieu of overtime pay, to a FLSA Non-Exempt Employee who works overtime under the following conditions and circumstances:
 1. Prior to working overtime, the Employee agrees to accept compensatory time-off in lieu of payment for working overtime. An FLSA Non-Exempt Employee who wishes to receive compensatory time instead of overtime pay shall make such election for an entire fiscal year (i.e., July 1 of the year through June 30 of the following year). Thereafter, whenever such Employee has approval to work overtime, such Employee shall receive compensatory time-off in lieu of overtime pay as long as such Employee does not have accrued and unused compensatory time in excess of forty (40) hours. If an Employee has over forty (40) hours of accrued and unused overtime, such Employee must be paid for all additional overtime in excess of forty (40) hours.

2. Prior to any overtime being worked, the Department Head has approved the award of compensatory time-off in lieu of overtime pay.
3. One and one-half hours of compensatory time-off is awarded for each hour of overtime worked.
4. Compensatory time-off shall be provided in lieu of overtime pay only in the event that Employee has less than 40 hours of accumulated and unused compensatory time-off and is not anticipated to accumulate more than 40 hours of compensatory time-off as a result of the overtime in question.
5. Employee must obtain approval for use of compensatory time-off in the same manner as approval for use of annual leave (see Section 8-104E).
 - a. Absent extraordinary circumstances (e.g., an Employee accumulating Compensatory time-off to extend paid time-off for child birth or adoption, or care of an elderly parent), an Employee must use compensatory time-off within 120 days after accumulating such leave.
 - b. The Department Head will allow an Employee to use accumulated compensatory time off within 120 days after it is accumulated, unless Employee fails to give adequate advance notice of a request for use of compensatory time-off and the department will be short staffed and unable to function properly when the leave is requested.
 - c. A Department Head shall notify the Personnel Administrator of the name of each Employee who has not used accumulated compensatory time-off within 120 days after earning it and the number of accumulated and unused hours. Thereafter, Employees shall be compensated for such time.
 - d. An Employee with accumulated compensatory time-off that believes he/she has been unreasonably denied use of such time-off shall promptly notify the Personnel Administrator.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- F. Administration of Compensatory Pay and Time-Off. Department Heads shall be responsible for administering the provisions of this policy within their respective departments and shall ensure that all overtime pay and compensatory time-off earned and used is promptly recorded in a ledger. Each Department Head is responsible for providing the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator with a monthly ledger showing the amount, if any, of compensatory time that each Non-FLSA Exempt Employee who has elected to receive compensatory time-off in lieu of overtime pay has accrued and used. Such ledger shall be delivered to the Personnel and Benefits Coordinator by no later the fifth (5th) day of each month. Form is provided by the Office of Human Resources.

Section 13-114. Cost of Living Increases.

- A. The County Commissioners may approve cost-of-living increases as part of the annual budget. Permanent Employees and Probationary Employees shall be eligible to receive cost-of-living increases.
- B. The County Commissioners shall, during annual budget formulation, consider whether a cost-of-living increase shall be provided to retirees receiving a monthly County pension benefit.

Section 13-115. Travel Compensation.

- A. Employees required to travel in a privately owned car on approved County business shall be reimbursed for mileage at the prevailing rate set by the County Commissioners.

 2. In the event of an accident, the private insurer shall be responsible for providing a defense and indemnification for any liability of Employee.
 3. Employee shall promptly notify the County's risk manager of any accident or mishap that occurs during Employee's use of such private vehicle and shall complete an incident report and provide whatever other information about the incident as is deemed necessary and appropriate. Failure to comply with this requirement will be grounds for immediate termination.

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- B. Reimbursement for parking, bridges, and road tolls shall be provided to Employees traveling on official business if receipts for the expenses are received and provided to Employer within 60 days of occurrence.
- C. Employees may be reimbursed for the actual cost while traveling overnight for lodging and meals on County business during travel required by the Employer when supported by receipts. If Employee travels out of the County during a regular business day, reimbursement for meals may be allowed when supported by receipts. The reimbursed amounts shall not exceed the limits established by the County Commissioners. If limits for reimbursed amounts have not been established by the County Commissioners, then the reimbursed amounts shall not exceed the typical and reasonable rates applicable in the area in which the travel occurred.

Section 13-116. Compensation of On-Call Time for Non-Exempt FLSA Employees.

- A. Introduction. In response to the operational needs of the County, A Non-Exempt (hourly) employee may be assigned to “on-call” status. On-Call status is different than an employee being subject to a call back (Section 113-17). An on-call employee must be:
 - 1. Reachable by phone, pager, or similar Technology Equipment provided to Employee by the County at any times such Employee is required to be on-call; and
 - 2. Capable of reporting to work within one hour of being called to duty.
- B. Scheduling.
 - 1. Because on-call status restricts an employee during nonworking hours, the County will make every effort to ensure that on-call assignments are rotated to the extent practicable.
 - 2. Assignment to on-call status will be made in writing and is not subject to appeal or grievance.
 - 3. To the extent practicable, on-call assignments shall be made in advance in the form of a “Duty Roster” or other formal schedule.

- C. Restrictions.

As long as an On-Call Employee can be contacted and report to work within an hour, there is no restriction on what an On-Call Employee does when such Employee is not regularly scheduled to work and assigned to on-call status, provided that such On-Call Employee may not consume any substance that would impair him/her from performing his/her duties in the event he/she is called to work. If, for any reason, an

On-Call Employee becomes unavailable to report to work while in On Call status, he/she shall notify his/her supervisor.

D. Dress and Equipment.

If the County provides an On-Call Employee with a uniform and/or portable Equipment that may be carried with such Employee, such Employee shall keep the uniform and equipment with him/her when On-Call and shall report to the Service area appropriately attired and equipped. Otherwise, such Employee should dress appropriately when called into work (e.g., an on-call Employee who goes swimming should carry clothes to change into in the event such Employee is summoned to work).

E. Pay.

When an On-Call Employee is called to report to work, he/she shall be paid for time actually worked, travel to and from a remote worksite, and travel from portal-to-portal shall be included in hours worked for determining overtime hours. Portal-to-Portal time shall be calculated on the basis of the employee driving nonstop at the posted speed limit from the employee's residence to the workplace. Any shift differential, holiday pay or other special compensation normally paid during a specific period shall be included if an On-Call Employee is called to work during such period. When an On-Call Employee is called back to work, he/she shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours pay regardless of the hours worked or the travel time involved.

An employee may receive a temporary increase ("shift differential") in the normal hourly rate of pay during any period the employee serves in On-Call status. An Employee also may receive other forms of compensation to reflect the additional responsibilities of serving an On-Call status, however, any such compensation is within the discretion of the County and subject to approval in the annual budget.

Section 13-117. Call Back.

A. Introduction. In response to the operational needs of the County, an employee may be called back to work at any time. It is the County's goal to minimize call backs and overtime pay to the extent practicable. Employees may be called back to work for situations which require a response on short notice and for which the call back work will serve to:

1. Safeguard public health, safety and welfare;
2. Avoid significant service disruption;

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

3. Provide or support Emergency Services or to protect public property; OR
 4. Meet other emergency needs as determined by the County Commissioners or designated members of the County Management team.
- B. Call Back. A call back occurs when an employee is requested to return to work on the employee's regular day off or following the completion of the employee's normal work shift. Completion of the employee's normal work shift means that the employee has physically left the work property and/or premises before being called back under this policy.
1. The following department heads are authorized to conduct call backs:
 - A. County Administrator (All departments)
 - B. Director of Emergency Services (All departments)
 - C. Public Works Director (Public Works)
 - D. Warden (Corrections)
 - E. Sheriff (Sheriff's Office)
 2. Call Back authority may be delegated to an Assistant Department Head/Director upon written approval of the County Administrator.
- C. Call Back Pay. Non-Exempt (Hourly) Employees shall be eligible for call back pay. Time actually worked, travel to a remote worksite, and travel from portal-to-portal shall be included in hours worked for determining overtime hours. Portal-to-portal time shall be calculated on the basis of the employee driving nonstop at the posted speed limit from the Employee's residence to the workplace. Any shift differential, Holiday Pay, or other special compensation normally paid during a specific period shall be included if a call back occurs during such period. When a non-exempt (hourly) employee is called back to work, he/she shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours pay regardless of the hours worked or the travel time involved.
- D. Early Call In. Calling employees in early to work is not considered a "call back." If a supervisor calls in an Employee with less than two hours' notice to the Employee, the Department Head may authorize call back pay for the first two hours of the shift the employee works.
- E. Continuation of Work. Retaining an employee beyond the end of regularly scheduled hours shall not be considered a "call back."

Caroline County Personnel Rules and Regulations

- F. Shift start/end times. Department Heads may adjust the starting and ending times of work shifts based on the operational needs of the County, the Department, and/or other relevant conditions, such as weather. For example, during a period of extreme heat, a Department Head may implement an earlier starting and ending time for Employees working outside. If a severe winter storm is anticipated in the evening, A Department Head may implement a starting time later in the morning to maximize the availability of employees and to minimize overtime expenses.
1. Department Heads shall make a good faith effort to provide advance notice to employees of any shift changes to the extent possible. In Departments where alternate shift patterns may be imposed due to foreseeable events or operational cycles (I.E. snow removal) the Department Head shall prepare a staffing plan and provide such plan to all affected employees.
 2. A change of shift start/end times shall not be considered a “call-back” or “early call in.” Any determination of eligibility for overtime compensation shall be based on hours worked.
